' VI. And whereas by an Act made in the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King George the Second, (intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Britiſh White Herring Fiſhery), a Bounty of Thirty Shillings per Ton was granted to the Owners of ſuch decked Veſſels as ſhould be fitted out and employed in the ſaid Fiſhery, in the Manner, and under the ſeveral Regulations and Reſtrictions, in the ſaid Act mentioned, to be paid yearly, during the Space of Fourteen Years, from the Commencement of the ſaid Act, and no longer: And whereas by another Act, made in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty, (intituled, An Act for further explaining, amending, and rendering more effectual, an Act made in the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Britiſh White Herring Fiſhery; and for giving further Encouragement for the carrying on the ſaid Fiſhery; and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned), the ſaid Bounty was continued for the further Term of Three Years, to be computed immediately from and after the Expiration of the term for which the ſame was granted as aforeſaid: And whereas by another Act, made in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty, (intituled, An Act for allowing a further Bounty on Veſſels employed in the White Herring Fiſhery; for giving Liberty to alter the preſent Form and Size of the Nets uſed in the ſaid Fiſhery; and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned), it was, amongſt other Things, enacted, That the ſaid Bounty of Thirty Shillings, by the ſaid Two ſeveral Acts granted and continued for the reſpective Terms of Years therein reſpectively mentioned, ſhould ceaſe, determine, and be at an End; and in lieu thereof, a Bounty of Fifty Shillings per Ton, on the Veſſels employed in the ſaid Fiſheries, was granted for ſuch Term and Terms of Years, to be paid in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Bounty of Thirty Shillings per Ton was by the ſaid Two ſeveral Acts, or either of them, directed to be paid: And whereas by another Act, made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, (intituled, An Act for the further Encouragement of the Britiſh White Herring Fiſhery), it was, amongſt other Things, recited, That the Terms for which the ſaid Bounty was granted, would expire on the Twenty-ſecond Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven; and, by the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act, it was alſo enacted, That the ſaid Bounty of Fifty Shillings per Ton, granted by the ſaid Act of the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty, ſhould be further continued for the further Term of Four Years, to be computed from and immediately after the Expiration of the Terms for which the ſame was granted as aforeſaid: And whereas by another Act, made in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, (intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the White Herring Fiſhery), a Bounty of Thirty Shillings per Ton is to be paid annually, in the Manner as in the ſaid Act is provided, to the Owner or Owners of all decked Veſſels, from Twenty to Eighty Tons Burthen, which ſhall be fitted out and employed in the ſaid Fiſheries, in Manner and under the Regulations in the ſaid laſt-recited Act mentioned, for the Space and Term of Seven Years, from and after the Twenty-ſecond Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament: And whereas it was intended by the ſaid laſt recited Act, That the ſaid Bounty of Thirty Shillings per Ton, thereby granted, ſhould commence and take place immediately after the Expiration of the Term for which the former Bounty of Fifty Shillings per Ton was granted and continued by the ſeveral Acts herein-before recited: And whereas ſeveral Veſſels have been fitted out and employed upon the Summer and Winter Fiſheries, for the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, upon a Preſumption that the Bounty of Fifty Shillings per Ton, granted and continued by the before-recited Act of the Fifth Year of His preſent Majeſty, did not expire till the Twenty-ſecond Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, agreeably to the Recital of the ſaid Act; but Doubts having ariſen, whether the Term of Twenty-one Years, for which the ſaid Bounty was firſt granted and continued, as herein-before mentioned, ſhould not have been computed from the Firſt Day of the Seſſion of Parliament, in the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty, which began upon the Sixteenth Day of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-nine, and which Term, from that Date, by the

CAP. LXI.

An Act to regulate the making, keeping, and Carriage of Gunpowder, within Great Britain; and to repeal the Laws heretofore made for any of thoſe Purpoſes.

Preamble.

‘WHEREAS the Manufacture of Gunpowder within Great Britain, though neceſſary to be encouraged in reſpect of the Value of Gunpowder, as an Article of Defence and Commerce, yet ought to be regulated by Law, in order to prevent the great Miſchiefs which may ariſe from Exploſions occaſioned by the improper Conſtruction and Uſe of the Mills, Engines, and Buildings, employed in the making of Gunpowder, and for keeping and carrying Gunpowder in too great Quantities, or in an improper Manner: And whereas the Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for reducing into one Act of Parliament the ſeveral Laws relating to the keeping and Carriage of Gunpowder, and for more effectually preventing Miſchiefs, by keeping or carrying Gunpowder in too great Quantities, contains no Proviſion for regulating the making of Gunpowder, and is in other Reſpects defective, on which account it may be convenient to repeal the ſaid Act, and, in the Room thereof to have a new Law for regulating, as well the making as the keeping and Carriage of Gunpowder;’ be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lord's Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall uſe, or cauſe to be uſed, any Mill or Mills, or other Engine or Engines, for the making of Gunpowder, or in any Manner manufacture Gunpowder in any Place or Places within Great Britain, except in Mills and other Places where the Manufacture of Gunpowder ſhall be actually carrying on at the Time of the Commencement of this Act, or where it ſhall afterwards become lawful to carry on ſuch Manufacture, by obtaining a Licence for that Purpoſe, under the Proviſions herein-after contained, upon Pain of forfeiting all Gunpowder manufactured contrary to the aforeſaid Proviſion, and alſo Two Shillings for every Pound of ſuch Gunpowder.

No Perſons to manufacture Gunpowder, except in Mills where it is carrying on at the paſſing hereof, without a Licence for that Purpoſe.

No Perſon hereafter to uſe a Peſtle Mill.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall, for the making of Gunpowder, employ, work or uſe, any Mill or Engine, worked with a Peſtle or Peſtles, and commonly called a Peſtle Mill, upon Pain of forfeiting all Gunpowder manufactured therein, and alſo Two Shillings for every Pound of ſuch Gunpowder.

Not exceeding 40 lb. to be made at any Time under a ſingle Pair of Mill Stones.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall, in or with any Mill or Engine uſed for the making of Gunpowder, make or cauſe to be made, at any One Time under any ſingle Pair of Mill Stones, any Quantity of Gunpowder, or Materials to be made into Gunpowder, exceeding Forty Pounds, upon Pain of forfeiting all Gunpowder ſo made at One Time, and exceeding the ſaid Quantity of Forty Pounds, and alſo Two Shillings for every Pound of ſuch Gunpowder.

No Perſon liable to Proſecution for uſing Peſtle Mills, &c. till One Year after the Commencement of this Act.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall be liable to any Proſecution under this Act, for uſing any Peſtle Mill or Mills in the making of Gunpowder, or for making above the Quantity of Forty Pounds of Gunpowder at a Time, under every ſingle Pair of Mill Stones in any One Mill, till after the Expiration of One Year from the Time of the Commencement of this Act.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to the Powder Mills at this Time erected in the Pariſhes of Battle, Crowhurſt, Seddelſcomb, and Brede, in the County of Suſſex, ſo far as relates to the making ſuch fine Fowling Gunpowder only, as is known and diſtinguiſhed by the Name of Battle Powder.

Nothing herein to extend to the Mills of Battle, Crowhurſt, Sedelſcomb, and Brede.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall dry, or cauſe to be dried, at any One Time, in any One Stove or Place, uſed for the drying of Gunpowder, any Quantity of Gunpowder exceeding Forty hundred Weight, upon Pain of forfeiting all Gunpowder above the ſaid Quantity of Forty hundred Weight, and the Sum of Two Shillings for every Pound of ſuch Gunpowder.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall not be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever to keep in any Corning-houſe, Drying-houſe, Duſting-houſe, or other Place, uſed for or in the making of Gunpowder, or in any Building adjoining or belonging thereto, (except Magazines or Store-houſes conſtructed with Stone or Brick, and ſituate Fifty Yards at leaſt from the Gunpowder Mill or Mills), any greater Quantity of Gunpowder than ſhall be neceſſary for the immediate Work then carrying on in ſuch Corning-houſe, Drying-houſe, Duſting-houſe, or other Place uſed for or in the making of Gunpowder, upon Pain of forfeiting all the Gunpowder kept above ſuch neceſſary Quantity, and the Sum of Two Shillings for every Pound of ſuch Gunpowder.

No greater Quantity than neceſſary for immediate Uſe to be kept in any Drying-houſe.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon or Perſons, keeping or uſing any Mill or Mills, or other Engine or Engines, for the making of Gunpowder, ſhall, beſides the Magazine or Magazines, and Storehouſes, near their Mills, have or provide a good and ſufficient Magazine or Magazines, remote from their reſpective Mills, for the Purpoſe of receiving and ſafe-keeping all the Gunpowder made at ſuch Mill or Mills, as ſoon as the ſame can, from Time to Time, be conveniently removed thereto, (which laſt-mentioned Magazine or Magazines ſhall be well and ſubſtantially built with Brick or Stone, near the River Thames, and below Blackwall, or in ſome other convenient Place to be licenſed by the Juſtices of the Peace, in Manner herein-after mentioned), upon Pain that all and every Perſon or Perſons making Gunpowder, without having ſuch Magazine or Magazines remote from their Mills, or other Places of making Gunpowder, ſhall forfeit the Sum of Twenty-five Pounds for every Month during which ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall make Gunpowder without having ſuch Magazine or Magazines, and the Sum of Five Pounds for every Day during which he, ſhe, or they (not being hindred by Streſs of Weather, or other juſt Impediment) ſhall wilfully neglect or delay removing, with due Diligence, the Gunpowder made at ſuch Mill or Mills, from thence, or from the Magazine or Magazines, and Storehouſes adjoining thereto, to the Magazine or Magazines ſo to be ſituate remote from the Mill.

Sufficient Magazines, remote from the Mills, to be provided; on Penalty of 25 l. per Menſem for every Month ſuch Magazine ſhall be wanting.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Maker or Makers of Gunpowder ſhall be liable to any Proſecution under this Act, for not having a Magazine or Magazines remote from their reſpective Gunpowder Mill or Mills, till after the Expiration of One Year, from the Time of the Commencement of this Act.

No Proſecutions for laſt Penalty to take Place, till One Year from the Commencement thereof.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Maker and Makers of Gunpowder, who ſhall keep, or permit to be kept, any Charcoal within Twenty Yards of any Mill or Mills, or other Engine or Engines, for making Gunpowder, or of any Drying, Corning or Duſting-houſe, or Magazine or Storehouſe thereto belonging, ſhall forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds for every Week during which ſuch Charcoal ſhall be ſo kept.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon or Perſons ſhall have or keep, at any One Time, being a Dealer or Dealers in Gunpowder, more than Two hundred Pounds of Gunpowder; and not being ſuch, more than Fifty Pounds of Gunpowder, in any Houſe, Mill, Magazine, Storehouſe, Warehouſe, Shop, Cellar, Yard, Wharf, or other Building or Place, occupied by the ſame Perſon or Perſons, (all Buildings and Places adjoining to each other, and occupied together, being to be deemed One Houſe or Place within this Act), or on any River or other Water, (except in Carriages loading or unloading or paſſing on the Land, or in Ships, Boats, or Veſſels, loading or unloading, or paſſing on any River, or other Water, or detained there by the Tide or bad Weather), within the following Limits; (that is to ſay), Within the Cities of London or Weſtminſter, or within Three Miles of either of them, or within any City, Borough, or Market Town of Great Britain, or One Mile of the ſame, or within Two Miles of any Palace or Houſe of Reſidence of his preſent Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, or of Her preſent Majeſty the Queen, or any Queen Conſort, or Dowager, or within Two Miles of any Gunpowder Magazine, belonging to His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, or within Half of a Mile of any Pariſh Church, or in any other Part of Great Britain, (except in Mills or other Places which at the Commencement of this Act ſhall be uſed for the making of Gunpowder, and the Magazines, Storehouſes, and Offices thereto adjoining and belonging, and in the Places where it ſhall be lawful to make Gunpowder, or to keep greater or unlimited Quantities of Gunpowder, by Force of the Proviſions herein-after contained), on Pain of forfeiting all the Gunpowder beyond the Quantity hereby allowed to be kept, and the Barrels in which ſuch Gunpowder ſhall be; and alſo Two Shillings for every Pound of Gunpowder beyond ſuch allowed Quantity.

Uſe of which ſuch Gunpowder ſhall be kept, and alſo that ſuch Magazine or Warehouſe be not within any of the Limits herein-before particularly deſcribed.

Manner of giving Notice for conſtructing new Mills.

‘ XIII. And whereas it may be neceſſary to have ſome Places appointed, in which it may be lawful ‘ to erect new Mills, or other Engines, for making Gunpowder, with proper Magazines and Offices ‘ adjoining thereto, and to have Magazines for keeping unlimited Quantities of Gunpowder in Places ‘ where there are no Mills,’ be it therefore enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the Juſtices of the Peace for each County, or other Diviſion, within Great Britain, at their General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, upon Application made to them by any Perſon or Perſons, (ſuch Perſon or Perſons having given Notice in Writing of the Intention to make ſuch Application, as alſo of the Place or Places propoſed for ſuch Purpoſes reſpectively, Fourteen Days before making it, to an Overſeer or Churchwarden of the Pariſh or Place in which it is propoſed to erect or make any ſuch new Mill, and Offices or Magazine, or of an adjoining Pariſh, if the Place ſhall be extraparochial; which Overſeer or Churchwarden is hereby required to cauſe ſuch Notice to be publickly read on the Sunday next enſuing, in the Pariſh Church after Divine Service), from Time to Time, to licence the erecting or having ſuch Mills for making Gunpowder, and proper Offices adjoining thereto, or ſuch Magazines for keeping unlimited Quantities of Gunpowder in ſuch Places not being within London or Weſtminſter, or any other Limits within Great Britain, herein-before particularly deſcribed.

Proceedings may be removed from Quarter ſeſſions to King's Bench.

‘ XIV. And whereas it would be proper that the Determination of the ſaid Court of Quarter-ſeſſions, ‘ on any ſuch Application, ſhould not be final, but that any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall be refuſed ‘ ſuch Licence or Appointment by the ſaid Court of Quarter Seſſions, ſhould have an Opportunity of ‘ bringing his or their Caſe before the Court of King's Bench, in order that the ſaid Court may finally ‘ hear and determine the ſame;’ be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in every Caſe where the ſaid Court of Quarter-ſeſſions ſhall, on ſuch Application made as aforeſaid, refuſe to licence any ſuch new Mills and Magazines for making and keeping Gunpowder, or to appoint Pieces of Ground for Magazines of Gunpowder, remote from any Mills, it ſhall be lawful for all Perſons who may think themſelves aggrieved by ſuch Refuſal, to apply to ſuch Court of Quarter-ſeſſions, for a Special Caſe thereupon; and the Juſtices then preſent ſhall, and are hereby required, to certify the Special Circumſtances of the Caſe in queſtion, together with the Proofs offered for and againſt the Application, in order that the ſaid Caſe and Proceedings may be removed, by Writ of Certiorari, into the Court of King's Bench; and the ſaid Juſtices ſhall, and they are hereby required, in their Return to ſuch Writ of Certiorari, to ſtate ſuch Special Caſe, to the End that the ſaid Court of King's Bench may judge of the real Merits thereof; and if upon the whole Matter it ſhall appear to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Court of King's Bench, that the Juſtices ought not to have refuſed the ſaid Licence or Appointment, then, and in ſuch Caſe, the ſaid Court ſhall have Power, and is hereby directed to make an Order upon the ſaid Juſtices to grant ſuch Licence, or make ſuch Appointment, without any freſh Application, at their next General Quarter-ſeſſions of the Peace; and the Coſts to be incurred by reaſon of ſuch Writ of Certiorari, ſhall be awarded according to the Diſcretion of the ſaid Court of King's Bench.

No Perſon liable to pay any Penalty, till Six Months after an Adjudication by the Juſtices.

XV. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it further enacted, That no Perſon ſhall be liable to pay any Penalty or Proſecution under this Act, for keeping unlimited Quantities of Gunpowder, without ſuch Licence of the Juſtices, in any Magazine apart and remote from any Gunpowder Mill, and already built and uſed for that Purpoſe, in any Place not being within London and Weſtminſter, and the other limits within Great Britain herein-before particularly deſcribed, until the Expiration of Six Calendar Months, after an Adjudication by the Juſtices of the Peace for the County or other Diviſion, in which any ſuch Magazine ſhall be, at their General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, that the ſame is dangerous; it being hereby declared that they ſhall not have Authority to make any ſuch Adjudication, except on Complaint made to them of any ſuch Magazine, by ſome Houſeholder of the Pariſh or Place in which the Magazine ſhall be, and after due Summons of the Owner or Owners of the Magazine complained of, to anſwer ſuch Complaint; and after ſuch Examination on Oath of the Witneſſes produced, to ſuport or invalidate ſuch Complaint; and alſo that no Perſon ſhall be liable, at any Time, to any Penalty or Proſecution whatſoever, for keeping unlimited Quantities of Gunpowder, without ſuch Licence of the Juſtices of the Peace, in any Magazine erected by Appointment of the Juſtices of the Peace, under the Power given to them by any of the former Acts regulating the keeping and Carriage of Gunpowder.

Juſtices to appoint proper Ground for erecting Magazines.

‘ XVI. And whereas by this Act the Makers of Gunpowder will be liable to Penalties for not having ‘ Magazines remote from their Mills, and in ſome Caſes they may not be able to agree for the Purchaſe ‘ of Pieces of Ground proper for ſuch Magazines;’ be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtices of the Peace for each County or other Diviſion, within Great Britain, ſhall, on Application made to them, at their General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, by any Maker or Makers of Gunpowder, from Time to Time, appoint proper and convenient Pieces of Ground, (not being within London or Weſtminſter, or any other Limits of Great Britain, herein-before particularly deſcribed, and not exceeding One Acre in any One Place), with the Uſe of convenient Roads thereto, on which Pieces ſo to be appointed, ſuch Makers of Gunpowder may erect Magazines for keeping Gunpowder, in any Quantity, after having agreed with the Owners of ſuch Grounds for the Purchaſe of the ſame; and if any ſuch Owner ſhall not agree, or by reaſon of any Impediment cannot ſo agree, ſuch Juſtices ſhall iſſue a Warrant to the Sheriff of the County, or other Officer having Return of Writs within their Juriſdiction, to impanel and return before them, at ſuch Times and Places as ſhall be appointed by ſuch Warrant, a ſufficient Jury, who, upon their Oaths, to be adminiſtered by the ſaid Juſtices, ſhall inquire into the true Value of the ſaid Pieces of Ground, with the Uſe of ſuch convenient Roads thereto, and their Verdicts ſhall be kept with the Records of the ſaid Seſſions reſpectively; and the Judgment of the ſaid Juſtices thereon ſhall be final and concluſive to all Parties: And for that End the ſaid Juſtices ſhall have Power to ſend for any Perſons intereſted, and to examine any Parties or Witneſſes upon Oath; and the Sums of Money ſo to be aſſeſſed and adjudged not exceeding Thirty Years Purchaſe, ſhall be paid to the Owners of the ſaid Ground, according to their reſpective Intereſts therein, in ſuch Proportions as ſhall be adjudged by the ſaid Juſtices; and upon ſuch Payment, or in caſe of Refuſal to accept the Money, then upon leaving the ſame with the Juſtices for the Benefit of the Owners, the Inheritance of the ſaid Ground, and the Uſe of the ſaid Roads thereto, ſhall be veſted in the Purchaſers thereof, their Heirs and Aſſigns, for the Purpoſe aforeſaid, and not otherwiſe.

Judgment of Juſticesto be final.

‘XVII. And whereas Leaſes or Agreements for Leaſes may have been made of Magazines or other ‘Places for keeping Gunpowder, and, in Conſequence of this Act, it may become unlawful to keep ‘unlimited Quantities of Gunpowder in ſome ſuch Magazines or Places;’ be it therefore enacted, That in every ſuch Caſe it ſhall and may be lawful for the Leſſee or Tenant of any ſuch Magazine or Place for keeping Gunpowder, to make void any ſuch Leaſe or Agreement, upon giving Three Calendar Months Notice in Writing to the Leſſor or Owner of ſuch Magazine or Place, of the Deſire of the Tenant to have ſuch Leaſe or Agreement determined, and upon paying to ſuch Leſſor or Owner all Rents and Sums of Money which ſhall become due for the ſame, to the Time of Determination limited in ſuch Notice, and upon performing all Covenants and Agreements on the Part of the Leſſee or Tenant to that Time.

Leſſee or Tenant to make void former Leaſes or Agreements, on giving Three Months Notice to the Leſſor.

XVIII. ## CAP. LXII.

An Act to enable the Lord Biſhop of Durham, and his Succeſſors, to raiſe a competent Sum of Money, to be applied for the repairing, improving, or rebuilding, ſuch Part of Tyne Bridge as belongs to the See of Durham.

Preamble.

‘WHEREAS the Right Reverend Father in God John Lord Biſhop of Durham is intitled, in Right of his See, to One-third Part of an ancient Bridge extending acroſs the River Tyne, between the Town of Gateſhead, in the County Palatine of Durham, and the Town and County of the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne: And whereas, by the Violence and Rapidity of a moſt extraordinary Flood, which happened on the Seventeenth Day of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, in the River of Tyne, the ſaid Bridge was very much damaged, broken down in ſeveral Places, and rendered utterly impaſſable: And whereas, in order to reſtore an eaſy and ſafe Communication between the Counties of Durham and Northumberland, it is highly expedient that the ſaid Bridge ſhould be rebuilt, or effectually repaired, with all poſſible Expedition: And inaſmuch as the Truſtees appointed for putting this Act in Execution.

‘ neceſſary Repairs of the One-third Part of the ſaid Bridge, belonging to the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Durham in Right of his See, and extending from Two Blue Marble or Boundary Stones, on the South Side of the ſaid Bridge, to the ſaid Town of Gateſhead, will be attended with a great Expence; and however reaſonable or proper it may be, that the entire Sum neceſſary to be appropriated for, and employed in, that uſeful and neceſſary Work, ought to be raiſed out of, or ſecured upon, the Revenues and Poſſeſſions of the ſaid See of Durham, and that the Lord Biſhop of Durham for the Time being, ought not to bear any greater Burthen than ſhall ariſe from the Intereſt or annual Charge to be paid in reſpect of the Principal Money to be raiſed for the Purpoſe aforeſaid; yet the ſaid John Lord Biſhop of Durham is conſenting that a reaſonable and adequate Sum of Money may be raiſed by the Authority of Parliament, by granting Annuities for Lives, which will not only be ſpeedy and effectual, but may be a Method leſs burthenſome to the Succeſſors in the ſaid See than to the ſaid John now Lord Biſhop of Durham, by the eventual Dropping of Lives, and the Decreaſe of ſuch temporary Charge: Wherefore, may it therefore pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be it enacted,’ and be enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Chancellor of the Biſhoprick and County Palatine of Durham and Sadberge, the Sheriff of the County Palatine of Durham and Sadberge, the Vicar-general and principal Official of the Dioceſe of Durham, the Attorney and Solicitor-general to the Lord Biſhop of Durham, the principal Regiſter or Regiſtrar of the Dioceſe of Durham, the Auditor to the Lord Biſhop of Durham, the Keeper of Auckland Caſtle, the Steward of the Halmote Courts of the Lord Biſhop of Durham, the Clerk of the Halmote Courts of the Lord Biſhop of Durham, the Clerk of the Great Receipt of the Exchequer of Durham, the Regiſter of the Court of Chancery of Durham, the Clerk of the Chancery of Durham, and the Keeper of the Rolls of the Chancery aforeſaid, the Clerk of the Itinerant Juſtices, and other Juſtices whomſoever in the County Palatine of Durham and Sadberge, and the Bailiff of the Borough of Auckland for the Time being, ſhall be, and they are hereby appointed Truſtees for putting this Act in Execution, by and under the Direction of the ſaid John Lord Biſhop of Durham, and his Succeſſors.

No Truſtee to accept of a Place of Profit.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Perſon ſhall be capable of acting as a Truſtee in the Execution of this Act, during the Time he ſhall hold any Office or Appointment, to which any Salary or pecuniary Profit ſhall be annexed, by virtue or in purſuance of this Act; nor ſhall any ſuch Truſtee, on his own private Account, enter into any Contract, or have any Share or Intereſt in any Contract, relating to the Execution of any of the Powers contained in this Act.

Truſtees authoriſed to contract for Ground, &c. for improving the Bridge and the Avenue thereto.

‘ III. And whereas it may be neceſſary to open a more convenient Avenue and Paſſage to that Part of the ſaid Bridge which belongs to the ſaid See of Durham, and to remove the Erections and Buildings on the ſame,’ be it therefore enacted, That the ſaid Truſtees, or any Three or more of them, ſhall, and they are hereby authoriſed, by and under ſuch Direction of the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Durham and his Succeſſors, as aforeſaid, to treat, contract, and agree with any Perſon or Perſons, for the abſolute Purchaſe of any Eſtate or Intereſt in any Buildings or Ground, which ſhall be deemed neceſſary to be appropriated, for the better and more effectually repairing, rebuilding, or improving, ſuch Part of ſaid Bridge as belongs to the ſaid See of Durham, and for making more convenient the Avenue and Paſſage leading on the ſame, or to appropriate any Building or Ground which the ſaid Biſhop is intitled unto in Right of his See, for the Purpoſes aforeſaid.

To ariſe any Sum not exceeding 12,000 l. for the Purpoſes of this Act, by granting Annuities.

‘ IV. And, foraſmuch as the raiſing an adequate Sum of Money upon the Credit of this Act, by granting Annuities for Lives, will be a ſpeedy and effectual Method of carrying the Intentions of the ſaid John Lord Biſhop of Durham into complete Execution;’ be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons to contribute, advance, and pay, to ſuch Treaſurer or Treaſurers as the ſaid John Lord Biſhop of Durham, or his Succeſſors, ſhall, in Manner herein after mentioned, authoriſe and impower to receive the ſame, for the Uſes herein-after expreſſed, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of Twelve thouſand Pounds, for the abſolute Purchaſe of Twelve or more Annuities for Lives, to be paid and payable, and the ſame are hereby directed to continue and be paid, during the full Term of the natural Life of each ſuch Contributor reſpectively, or the natural Life of ſuch other Perſon as ſhall be nominated by or on the Behalf of each Contributor reſpectively, at the Time of Payment of their reſpective Purchaſe or Contribution-money; which Annuity or Annuities ſhall not reſpectively exceed the Rate of Ten Pounds per Annum for every One hundred Pounds advanced and actually paid, and ſo in proportion for any greater or leſs Sum ſo to be advanced and paid as aforeſaid; and the ſaid ſeveral Annuities, ſo to be purchaſed, ſhall be charged upon, and be paid and payable out of the Rents, Revenues, and Profits, of the ſaid See, which from Time to Time, during the Continuance of the ſaid Annuities, or any of them, ſhall be received by the ſaid John Lord Biſhop of Durham, or his Succeſſors, or ſhall come to the Hands of, or be received by the Receiver-general for the Time being of the ſaid John Lord Biſhop of Durham, or his Succeſſors, by ſuch Receiver-general, or his Succeſſors, at ſuch Place in the City of Durham, by equal Half-yearly Payments, as in the Order or Orders herein-after mentioned for Payment thereof ſhall be reſpectively expreſſed; and ſuch Receiver-general for the Time being ſhall be credited, or have an Allowance in his Accounts of or for all ſuch Sums of Money, as he ſhall actually pay by virtue or in purſuance of this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if ſuch Payments had reſpectively been really and bona fide made to the ſaid John Lord Biſhop of Durham, or his Succeſſors; and the ſaid ſeveral Annuities ſhall commence from the Receipt of any Sum or Sums of Money reſpectively; and ſuch Annuity or Annuities ſhall not be ſubject or liable to any Deduction or Abatement for or in reſpect of any Tax, Charge, or Aſſeſſment, impoſed or to be impoſed by Authority of Parliament, or otherwiſe howſoever, upon the Lands, Tenements, or Perſons, by this Act charged therewith, or by whom, or out of which the ſame are to be anſwered and paid; nor ſhall any ſuch Annuitant or Annuitants, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, or any of them, be anſwerable or accountable for the Miſapplication or Nonapplication of, or liable to make good any Loſs that ſhall or may happen in, or of any ſuch Purchaſe or Conſideration-money that ſhall be ſo advanced or paid as aforeſaid, or any Part thereof; and the Receipt or Receipts of the ſaid ſeveral Annuitants, their reſpective Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, for all and every ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as ſhall be paid to them, or any of them reſpectively, by the ſaid Receiver-general for the Time being, in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be as good and effectual Diſcharges to ſuch Receiver-general, as if the ſame Sum and Sums had been actually paid to the ſaid John Lord Biſhop of Durham, or his Succeſſors.

Previous to Sale of ſuch Annuities, Notice to be given in the London Gazette.

V. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted and declared, That, previous to the Sale of ſuch Annuities, in order to raiſe the ſaid Sum of Twelve thouſand Pounds, or any Part thereof, One Calendar Month's Notice at the leaſt ſhall, Four or more different Days, be given in the London Gazette, expreſſing the Intention of the Sale of ſuch Annuity or Annuities, ſo as to raiſe the ſaid Sum of Twelve thouſand Pounds, or any Part thereof, in order that any Perſon may have an Opportunity to deliver in Propoſals for what annual Income or Payment per Centum they are willing to advance their Money; and the ſaid Truſtees, or any Three or more of them, ſhall, (if the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Durham, or his Succeſſors, ſhall think any ſuch Propoſals reaſonable) give the Preference to the loweſt Propoſer, Regard being had to the Circumſtances of Age and Health; and the ſaid Annuities ſhall be ſold by the ſaid Truſtees, or any Three or more of them, ſubject to the Approbation of the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Durham, to be ſignified by any Writing under his Hand, to the beſt Advantage they can.

Power of Diſtreſs and Entry.

VI. And, for the more effectual ſecuring to the ſaid Annuitants the regular and full Payment of their reſpective Annuities, be it further enacted, That the ſaid ſeveral Annuities ſhall be alſo charged upon and iſſuing out of, and the ſame are hereby charged upon and directed to be iſſued out of all or any ſuch Part of the Temporalities and Poſſeſſions belonging to the ſaid See of Durham, as ſhall, from Time to Time, and at any Time hereafter, during the Life or Lives of any ſuch Annuitant or Annuitants, be held in Demeſne, or be in the immediate Poſſeſſion or Holding of the ſaid John Lord Biſhop of Durham, or his Succeſſors: And if it ſhall happen that the ſaid ſeveral Annuities, or any of them, or any Part thereof reſpectively, ſhall be behind and unpaid for Twenty-one Days after any of the Feaſts or Days which ſhall be limited and appointed for Payment thereof; then, and ſo often, and from Time to Time as it ſhall ſo happen, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Annuitants, or Perſons intitled to ſuch Annuities reſpectively, and his and their reſpective Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, into and upon the Premiſes ſo hereby charged, for more effectually ſecuring the Payment of the ſaid Annuity or Annuities, or into and upon any Part thereof, to enter and diſtrain; and the Diſtreſs and Diſtreſſes then and there found to take, lead, drive, carry away, and impound, or otherwiſe diſpoſe of, according to Law, until the ſaid Annuity or Annuities, and all Arrears thereof, and all Coſts and Charges attending ſuch Entry and Diſtreſs, and all Damages to be ſuſtained by Reaſon of the Nonpayment thereof, ſhall be fully ſatisfied and paid; and moreover, that if the ſaid Annuity or Annuities, or any Part thereof, ſhall be behind or unpaid for Forty Days after any of the Feaſts or Days which ſhall be limited or appointed for Payment thereof; then, and ſo often, from Time to Time, as it ſhall ſo happen, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Annuitants, or Perſons intitled to ſuch Annuities reſpectively, and his and their reſpective Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, into the ſame Premiſes to enter, and to take and receive the Rents, Iſſues, and Profits thereof to his, her, and their own Uſe and Benefit, until thereby or therewith, or otherwiſe, all Arrears of the ſaid Annuity or Annuities then grown due, or that, during ſuch Poſſeſſion ſhall grow due, and all Coſts and Charges attending ſuch Entry upon, and Perception of the Rents and Profits of the ſame Premiſes, and all Damages that he, ſhe, or they ſhall then have ſuſtained by reaſon of the Nonpayment of the ſaid Annuity or Annuities, or yearly Sums, ſhall be fully ſatisfied and paid.

A Treaſurer to be appointed by the Biſhop of Durham.

'VII. And, to the Intent that ſome proper Perſon or Perſons may be appointed to receive the Price 'or Conſideration-money to be paid for the ſaid Annuities, and to apply and diſpoſe of the Money ſo 'received, for the Purpoſes of this Act,' be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid John Lord Biſhop of Durham, or his Succeſſors, by any Writing or Writings under his or their Hand, or reſpective Hands, to appoint a Treaſurer, who ſhall give ſuch Security for the due and faithful Execution of his Office, as the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Durham, or his Succeſſors, ſhall think reaſonable; and alſo to appoint ſuch One or more fit and ſkilful Perſon or Perſons (if he or they ſhall think proper ſo to do) as may be neceſſary and proper, either to inſpect the Works, or to execute any Rules, Orders, or Regulations to be made or done in purſuance of this Act, with ſuch Allowances to the Treaſurer for the Time being, and ſuch other Perſon or Perſons as aforeſaid, as by the ſaid John Lord Biſhop of Durham, or his Succeſſors, and the ſaid Truſtees, or any Three or more of them, ſhall be judged reaſonable, for, and in Conſideration of his and their Employment and Service reſpectively; and likewiſe, that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Lord Biſhop of Durham, and his Succeſſors, from Time to Time, to remove or diſcontinue ſuch Treaſurer, or other Perſon or Perſons, and appoint another or others in the Place of ſuch of them as ſhall be ſo removed, or as ſhall happen to die before the ſeveral Intents and Purpoſes mentioned in, or intended by this Act, ſhall be completely performed and carried into Execution.

After the paſſing of this Act, Foreigners may lend Money at Intereſt, not exceeding 5l. per Cent. on the Security of Freehold Eſtates in the Weſt Indies.

In caſe of Non-payment, Suits may be brought at Common Law, for recovery of Demands; or in the Court of Chancery for the Colony; and the Plaintiff be intitled to the like Remedy for Recovery, as Britiſh Subjects.

II. II. Provided always, That no Quay, Peer, Jettee, Breaſt, or any other Work hereby authoriſed to be built and erected, ſhall be built and erected to the Eaſtward of the ſaid Point of Land called Mac Gilp's Tenement, or to the Weſtward of the preſent Harbours of Greenock, without the Conſent in Writing of Charles Schaw Lord Cathcart, his Heirs or Aſſigns, under his or their Hands and Seals firſt had and obtained for that Purpoſe; any Thing herein-before contained to the Contrary in any-wiſe notwithſtanding.

CAP.

CAP. XXX.

An Act for the better Regulation and Government of the Pilots conducting Ships and Veſſels to and out of the Port of King's Lynn, and of the Bridgemen conducting Gangs of Lighters or Barges to and from the ſame; and for laying down Moorings in the Harbour of the ſaid Port, and for preventing Miſchiefs by Fire therein.

Preamble.

‘WHEREAS the Borough of Lenne Regis, commonly called King's Lynn, in the County of Norfolk, is a very ancient Borough, within the Liberties whereof there are a Port and Harbour of the Sea for importing and exporting Merchandiſe; and the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the ſaid Borough have, by Royal Charter, been a Corporation for Two hundred Years laſt paſt and upwards, and by certain Letters Patent, granted them by King James the Firſt, dated the Nineteenth Day of November, in the Second Year of His Reign, were conſtituted (and now are) Admirals within the ſaid Borough, and the Port, Limits, and Bounds thereof; and, by virtue of the ſame Letters Patent, and others ſince granted to them by the Crown, and by long Uſage have erected and put down proper Buoys and Beacons in the Channel of the ſaid Port, and appointed Pilots for conducting Ships and Veſſels into and out of the ſaid Borough and Port, from and to a certain Place called Saint Edmund's Neſs, otherwiſe Gore End, and from thence North and by Weſt to another Place or Sand called Longſand, being the utmoſt Bounds Northwards of the ſaid Admiralty Juriſdiction, and have alſo appointed other Perſons, commonly called Bridgemen, to conduct Gangs of Lighters or Barges into and out of the ſaid Borough and Port, from and to a certain Place called Staple Weere, being the utmoſt Bounds Southwards of the ſaid Admiralty Juriſdiction: And whereas the Channel from Gore End and the Longſand aforeſaid to the ſaid Port or Habour of King's Lynn, and from thence to Staple Weere aforeſaid, is become a more difficult and dangerous Navigation than heretofore for Ships, Veſſels, and Lighters, reſpectively uſing the ſame, and many Ships have been wrecked, and Lighters and Barges ſunk, by Means of the large Bodies of Sand which often ſhift from Place to Place, and by Means of the double-fluked Anchors now uſed in the ſaid Harbour, and divers unſkilful Perſons, without the Licence or Authority of the ſaid Mayor and Burgeſſes, have often taken upon themſelves to act as Pilots and Bridgemen for the Conducting and Guidance of Ships, Veſſels, and Lighters, to and from the ſaid Port, to the great Hazard of ſuch Ships, Veſſels, and Lighters, and their Cargoes, and the Lives of the Perſons on Board the ſame, and to the Obſtruction of Navigation: And whereas the Flood and Ebb Tides in the ſaid Harbour run very rapid and ſtrong, and the Harbour oppoſite the Town of late Years is become much wider towards the South-weſt, ſo that when the Ebb runs ſtrong, and the Wind blows hard at the ſame Time, Ships and Veſſels lying there, are often driven from their Moorings, and ſunk in the ſaid Harbour: And whereas Loſſes by Fire have happened to Merchants and Owners of Ships and trading Veſſels, lying in the ſaid Harbour, occaſioned by the heating of Pitch, Tar, Roſin, Oil, or other combuſtible Matters on board ſuch Ships and Veſſels: And whereas the Powers and Authorities veſted in the ſaid Mayor and Burgeſſes are found not ſufficient or effectual to regulate and govern the ſaid Pilots and Bridgemen, and to remedy and prevent the ill Practices and Miſchiefs before mentioned: And whereas the Damages ſuſtained in the Harbour might, in a great Meaſure be prevented by laying down ſubſtantial Anchors for publick Uſe, furniſhed with proper Rings, Chains, and Floats, commonly called Harbour Moorings, for the more effectual ſecuring the Ships and Veſſels riding in the ſaid Harbour from driving on Shore by voilent Storms of Wind, by raging Tides, by great Land Floods, or otherwiſe; but as the laying down ſuch Moorings will be attended with great Expence, the ſame cannot be carried into Execution without the Aid of Parliament;’ therefore, and for the Benefit and Improvement of Trade and Navigation, and promoting the Safety of His Majeſty's Subjects, may it pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Twenty-fourth Day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall take upon him or themſelves to conduct or pilot any Ship or Veſſel, or any Gang of Lighters or Barges, into or out of the ſaid Port of King's Lynn, or between Saint Edmund's Neſs, otherwiſe Gore End, and Steeple Weere aforeſaid, without being licenſed ſo to do by the ſaid Mayor and Burgeſſes for the Time being, which Licences the ſaid Mayor and Burgeſſes are hereby impowered to grant under their Common Seal; every Perſon ſo offending ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Three Pounds, nor leſs than Twenty Shillings.

CAP. XXXI.

An Act for the more effectual Execution of Criminal Laws in the Two Parts of the United Kingdom.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS it frequently happens that Felons, and other Malefactors, in that Part of Great Britain called England, make their Eſcape into that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and alſo that Felons, and other Malefactors, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, make their Eſcape into that Part of Great Britain called England; whereby their Offences often remain unpuniſhed, there being no ſufficient Proviſion, by the Laws of either of the Two Parts of the United Kingdom for apprehending ſuch Offenders, and tranſmitting them into that Part of the United Kingdom in which their Offences were committed:' For Remedy thereof, may it therefore pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, if any Perſon or Perſons, againſt whom a Warrant ſhall be iſſued by any Juſtice or Juſtices of Peace of any County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, within that Part of Great Britain called England, for any Crime or Offence againſt the Laws of that Part of the United Kingdom, ſhall eſcape, go into, reſide, or be in any Place of that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Sheriff, or Steward-depute, or Subſtitute, or any Juſtice of Peace of the County or Place where ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall eſcape, go into, reſide, or be, to indorſe his Name on the ſaid Warrant; which Warrant, ſo indorſed, ſhall be a ſufficient Authority to the Perſon or Perſons bringing ſuch Warrant, and to all Perſons to whom ſuch Warrant was originally directed; and alſo to all Sheriffs Officers, Stewards Officers, Conſtables, and other Peace Officers of the County or Place where ſuch Warrant ſhall be ſo indorſed, to execute the ſaid Warrant in the County or Place where it is ſo indorſed, by apprehending the Perſon or Perſons againſt whom ſuch Warrant is granted, and to convey him, her, or them, into the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, of that Part of Great Britain called England, being adjacent to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, in which the Crime was committed, and before One of the Juſtices of Peace of ſuch County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, to be there dealt with according to Law: Or, in caſe the Crime was committed in a County not next adjacent to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; then, and in every ſuch Caſe, to convey him, her, or them, into any County of that Part of Great Britain called England, next adjacent to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and before One of the Juſtices of Peace of ſuch County, which Juſtice of Peace is hereby authoriſed and required to proceed with regard to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, in the Manner directed by an Act, made in the Twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of His Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for amending and making more effectual a Clauſe in an Act, paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, for the apprehending of Perſons in any County or Place, upon Warrants granted by Juſtices of the Peace of any other County or Place, as if the ſaid Perſon or Perſons had been apprehended in the ſaid County.

Perſons againſt whom Warrants are iſſued by Juſtices in England, for Offences, who ſhall eſcape into Scotland, may be conveyed into that County where the Offence was committed by the Juſtices, &c. in Scotland, who are to indorſe their Names on ſuch Warrants.

Perſons guilty of like Crimes in Scotland, may be apprehended, and returned.

II. And, for Remedy of the like Inconveniency, by the Eſcape of Perſons guilty of Crimes in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, if any Perſon or Perſons, againſt whom a Warrant ſhall be iſſued by the Lord Juſtice General, Lord Chief Juſtice Clerk, or any of the Lords Commiſſioners of Juſticiary, or by any Sheriff, or Steward-depute, or Subſtitute, or Juſtice of the Peace of that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for any Crime or Offence againſt the Laws of that Part of the United Kingdom, ſhall eſcape, go into, reſide, or be, in any Place of that Part of Great Britain called England, it ſhall and may be lawful for any Juſtice of Peace of the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, where ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall eſcape, go into, reſide, or be, to indorſe his Name on the ſaid Warrant; which Warrant, ſo indorſed, ſhall be a ſufficient Authority to the Perſon or Perſons bringing ſuch Warrant, and to all Perſons to whom ſuch Warrant was originally directed; and alſo to all Conſtables, or other Peace Officers of the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, where ſuch Warrant ſhall be ſo indorſed, to execute the ſaid Warrant in the County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Liberty, Town, or Place, where it is ſo indorſed, by apprehending the Perſon or Perſons againſt whom ſuch Warrant is granted, and to convey him, her, or them, into the County or Place of that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, being adjacent to that Part of Great Britain called England where the Crime was committed; and before the Sheriff, or Steward depute, or Subſtitute, or One of the Juſtices of the Peace of ſuch County or Place, to be there dealt with according to Law: Or in caſe the Crime was committed in a County not next adjacent to that Part of Great Britain called England; then, and in ſuch Caſe, to convey him, her, or them, into any County of that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, next adjacent to that Part of Great Britain called England, and before the Sheriff, or Steward-depute, Subſtitute, or One of the Juſtices of the Peace of ſuch County; which Sheriff, Steward, or Juſtice of the Peace, is hereby required to proceed with regard to ſuch Perſon or Perſons according to the Rules and Practice of the Law of Scotland, as if the ſaid Perſon or Perſons had been apprehended in the ſaid County.

Expence of removing Priſoners to be defrayed by the Treaſurer of the County in England, or by the Sheriff-depute in Scotland.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Expence of removing Priſoners as aforeſaid ſhall be repaid to the Perſon defraying the ſame by the Treaſurer of the County of that Part of Great Britain called England, or by the Sheriff, or Steward-depute, or Subſtitute, of the County of that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, in which the Crime was committed, the Amount of that Expence being previouſly aſcertained by an Account thereof, verified upon Oath before Two of the Juſtices of the Peace of ſuch county, and allowed and ſigned by them.

Perſons who ſhall have ſtolen Money, &c. in either Part of the United Kingdom, may be indicted for Theft.

'IV. And whereas it frequently happens in both Parts of the United Kingdom, that Perſons having 'ſtolen or otherwiſe feloniouſly taken away Money, Cattle, Goods, or other Effects, carry the ſame 'into the other Part of the United Kingdom, and there have the ſaid Money, Cattle, Goods, or other 'Effects, in their Poſſeſſion or Cuſtody; and Doubts have been entertained, whether they could 'be indicted and tried in that Part of the United Kingdom, as the original Offence was not there 'committed;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That, from and after the paſſing of this Act, if any Perſon or Perſons having ſtolen, or otherwiſe feloniouſly taken Money, Cattle, Goods, or other Effects, in either Part of the United Kingdom, ſhall afterwards have the ſame Money, Cattle, Goods, or other Effects, or any Part thereof, in his, her, or their Poſſeſſion or Cuſtody, in the other Part of the United Kingdom, it ſhall and may be lawful to indict, try, and puniſh ſuch Perſon or Perſons for Theft or Larceny in that Part of the United Kingdom where he, ſhe, or they ſhall ſo have ſuch Money, Cattle, Goods, or other Effects, in his, her, or their Poſſeſſion or Cuſtody, as if the ſaid Money, Cattle, Goods, or other Effects, had been ſtolen in that Part of the United Kingdom.

Receivers of Money, &c. in either Part of the Kingdom, knowing the ſame to be ſtolen, alſo liable to be puniſhed.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons, in either Part of the United Kingdom, ſhall hereafter receive or have any Money, Cattle, Goods, or other Effects, ſtolen, or otherwiſe feloniouſly taken, in the other Part of the United Kingdom, knowing the ſame to be ſtolen, or otherwiſe feloniouſly taken, every ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be liable to be indicted, tried, and puniſhed for ſuch Offence in that Part of the United Kingdom where he, ſhe, or they ſhall ſo receive or have the ſaid Money, Cattle, Goods, or other Effects, in the ſame Manner, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſaid Money, Cattle, Goods, or other Effects, had been originally ſtolen, or otherwiſe feloniouſly taken, in that Part of the United Kingdom.

Preamble.

‘WHEREAS the Eſtabliſhment of a Glaſs Manufactory in Great Britain, upon an improved Plan, in a peculiar Manner, calculated for the caſting of Plate Glaſs, would be of great Benefit and Utility to this Kingdom, and may tend, as well to increaſe the publick Revenue ariſing from the Duties laid thereon, as to improve the preſent Method of making Plate Glaſs, which is not brought to a State of Perfection equal to that in foreign Countries: And whereas ſuch Manufactory cannot be eſtabliſhed without great Riſk in the Undertaking, and without a very large Expence, nor can be conveniently carried on, unleſs a conſiderable Joint Stock is raiſed for that Purpoſe: And whereas ſeveral Perſons have already formed themſelves into a Society, and ſubſcribed conſiderable Sums, and purchaſed Materials, and engaged proper Perſons, for the Purpoſe of eſtabliſhing and carrying on the ſaid Manufactory; but ſuch Perſons are apprehenſive that Difficulties may ariſe, as well in recovering Debts which may grow due to the Proprietors of the ſaid Manufactory, as alſo in defending Suits or Actions which may be commenced or brought againſt the ſaid Proprietors for any Matter or Thing relative to the ſaid Manufactory, as by Law all the ſeveral Proprietors and Subſcribers to the ſaid Manufactory muſt in ſuch Caſes both ſue and be ſued, implead and be impleaded, by their ſeveral and diſtinct Names and Deſcriptions; and therefore, for the more eaſily carrying on the Manufacture, and avoiding the Difficulties aforeſaid, are deſirous of being incorporated, and having a Common Seal and Name, by which they may ſue and be ſued: And whereas many Perſons who are not now liable to become Bankrupts, within the Intent and Meaning of any of the Laws now in Force concerning Bankrupts, are likewiſe fearful of ſubſcribing Money to carry on the ſaid Manufacture, as by becoming Subſcribers to, and Part Owners thereof, they may be liable to have Commiſſions of Bankrupt iſſued againſt them as Traders;’ may it therefore pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Right Honourable John Stuart, commonly called Lord Mountſtuart, the Honourable Major General Charles Fitzroy, Herbert Mackworth, Peregrine Cuſt, Thomas Dundas, Robert Palk, John Mackay, Philip Affleck, James Mowbray, Robert Digby, Angus Mackay, Henry Dagge, Albany Wallis, Henry Haſtings Ranald MacDonald, Thomas Davenport, Aſheton Curzen, John Dolben, Thomas Potter, Thomas Durell, Stephen Cæſar Lemaiſtre, and Henry Errington, Eſquires; and every other Perſon or Perſons who ſhall hereafter, either in their own Right, or as Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors, or Aſſigns, in Right of any other Perſon or Perſons become Proprietors of, or intereſted in any Part or Share of the Joint Capital Stock or Fund herein-after mentioned, ſhall be One diſtinct and ſeparate Body Politick and Corporate, in Deed and in Name, by the Name and Stile of The Governor and Company of Britiſh-caſt Plate Glaſs Manufacturers, and that by the ſame Name they ſhall have Succeſſion and a Common Seal; and that they and their Succeſſors may, from Time to Time, break, alter, make new, or change ſuch Common Seal, as ſhall be found moſt expedient; and that ſuch Corporation ſhall be able and capable in Law, and ſhall have perfect and full Power and Ability in Law to have, purchaſe, receive, take, and enjoy, to them and their Succeſſors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments of what Kind, Nature, or Quality ſoever, for the Uſe of the ſaid Manufactory, notwithſtanding the Statutes of Mortmain, ſo as the ſame do not exceed the yearly Value of Five hundred Pounds; and any Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, may give, grant, bargain, ſell, or convey, to the ſaid Company of Proprietors, any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, for the Uſe and Benefit of the ſaid Manufactory, ſo as the ſame do not exceed the annual Value aforeſaid, without Licenſe of Alienation in Mortmain; and that ſuch Corporation ſhall have Power and Ability in Law to grant, ſell, demiſe, alien, or diſpoſe of ſuch Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any Part thereof, at their free Will and Pleaſure; and, in their Corporate Name, ſhall and may be able and capable in Law to ſue and implead, be ſued and impleaded, anſwer and be anſwered, in any Court of Record, or elſewhere, in all Cauſes and Actions whatſoever, for, touching, or concerning the ſaid Corporation, or the Manufactory by them carried on, as aforeſaid.

Company may raiſe a joint Stock.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for ſuch Corporation to raiſe a Capital Joint Stock, to be applied for the carrying on the ſaid Manufacture, not exceeding the Sum of Forty thouſand Pounds, at ſuch Times, and in ſuch Proportion, as at any General Court or Courts of ſuch Corporation, to be holden in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be directed; and that the ſame be divided into ſuch Number of Shares as herein-after mentioned, each Share not exceeding the Sum of Five hundred Pounds; and that no Perſon ſubſcribing thereto, or becoming a Proprietor of ſuch Manufactory, do become a Proprietor of leſs than One Share, or more than Twelve Shares, either in his or her own Name, or in the Name of any other Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for him or her, (except the ſame ſhall come to him or her by Deviſe, Bequeſt, Marriage, or Act of Law), upon Pain of forfeiting to the ſaid Company of Proprietors all ſuch Shares, exceeding Twelve Shares, as aforeſaid; and the Money ſo to be raiſed, is hereby directed and appointed to be applied, in the firſt Place, for and towards the Payment, Diſcharge, and Satisfaction, of the Expences hitherto incurred on account of the eſtabliſhing the ſaid Manufactory, and preparatory to the paſſing of this Act, and alſo the Expences to be incurred in the paſſing thereof, and the Reſidue of ſuch Monies ſhall be applied in and about the Buſineſs of the ſaid Manufacture.

Joint Stock to be divided into Shares.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Sum of Forty thouſand Pounds, or ſuch Part thereof as ſhall be raiſed by the ſeveral Perſons herein-before named, or by ſuch other Perſon or Perſons who ſhall or may hereafter become Proprietor or Proprietors of the ſaid Manufacture, ſhall be divided into Eighty Shares, at a Price not exceeding the Sum of Five hundred Pounds for every ſuch Share, and that the ſaid Eighty Shares ſhall be, and are hereby veſted in the ſeveral Perſons herein-before deſcribed, and their ſeveral and reſpective Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors, and Aſſigns, to their and every of their proper Uſe and Benefit, proportionably to the Sum they and each of them ſhall ſeverally ſuſcribe and pay thereunto, and all and every the ſaid Shares ſhall be deemed to be perſonal Eſtate, and tranſmiſſible as ſuch, and not of the Nature of real Property; and all and every Perſon and Perſons, their ſeveral and reſpective Executors, Adminiſtrators, and Aſſigns, who ſhall ſeverally ſubſcribe and pay in the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, or ſuch Sum or Sums as ſhall be demanded in Part thereof, towards the eſtabliſhing and carrying on the ſaid Undertaking, ſhall be intitled to, and receive the entire and neat Diſtribution of One-eightieth Part of the Profits and Advantages that ſhall and may ariſe and accrue by virtue of the Sum and Sums of Money to be raiſed, recovered, or received, by the Authority of this Act; and ſo in Proportion for any greater Number of Shares, not exceeding Twelve Shares as aforeſaid; and every Perſon or Perſons, having ſuch Property of One-eightieth Part or Share in the ſaid Undertaking, and ſo in Proportion as aforeſaid, ſhall bear and pay a proportionable Sum of Money towards carrying on the ſaid Undertaking, in Manner herein-after enacted, directed, and appointed.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Company of Proprietors, their Succeſſors or Aſſigns, and they are hereby required, out of the Money to be raiſed as aforeſaid, until the ſaid Manufactory ſhall be ſo eſtabliſhed, that the Profits ariſing therefrom are ſufficient to make a Dividend equal to an Intereſt of Five Pounds per Centum on the Capital advanced, to pay unto all and every the ſaid Proprietors, their ſeveral and reſpective Succeſſors, Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, who ſhall ſeverally pay in or ſubſcribe any Sum or Sums of Money, for and towards the carrying on and eſtabliſhing the ſaid Manufactory, an Intereſt for ſuch Sum or Sums as they ſhall reſpectively pay in, after the Rate of Five Pounds for every One hundred Pounds for One Year, from the Time that each of ſuch Sum or Sums ſhall be reſpectively advanced as aforeſaid, and be paid and payable at ſuch Place or Places as ſhall be agreed on and appointed for that Purpoſe, at the Firſt General Meeting of the ſaid Company of Proprietors, to be held as herein-after is mentioned.

Perſons ſubſcribing may vote at Meetings.

V. And, to the End that all Matters or Things touching or relating to the eſtabliſhing and carrying on the ſaid Manufactory may be managed and conducted in the moſt beneficial Manner, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall have ſubſcribed for One or more Share or Shares of the ſaid Manufactory, his and their reſpective Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, in every or any publick Meeting or Aſſembly, to be held as herein-after appointed for carrying on the Buſineſs of the ſaid Manufactory, ſhall have Liberty by him, her, or themſelves, to give One Vote, and no more, without any Regard being had to the Number of Shares he, ſhe, or they, ſhall reſpectively be poſſeſſed of, and intereſted in, as aforeſaid; and whatever Queſtion, Election of Officers, or other Matter or Thing ſhall be propoſed, diſcuſſed, or conſidered, in any publick Aſſembly or Meeting, to be held under and by virtue of this Act, ſhall be finally determined by the Majority of Votes then preſent, computing One Vote for every Member then preſent, and no more.

Preamble.

‘WHEREAS the ſeveral Acts of Parliament heretofore made concerning the Duties and ‘Bounties reſpectively payable on the Importation and Exportation of Corn and Grain have ‘have greatly tended to the Advancement of Tillage and Navigation; yet nevertheleſs, it having ‘been of late Years found neceſſary, on account of the ſmall Quantities of Corn and Grain in ‘Hand, and of the Shortneſs of the Crops, to ſuſpend the Operation of thoſe Laws by Temporary ‘Statutes, whereby the Benefits derived from the ſaid Acts of Parliament have been, during ſuch ‘Emergencies, withheld and ſuſpended: And whereas the regulating the Importation and Exporta‘tion of Corn and Grain by a permanent Law, under ſuch general Rules and Proviſions as might ‘render, for the Time to come, ſuch temporary Laws unneceſſary, would afford Encouragement to ‘the Farmer, be the Means of increaſing the Growth of that neceſſary Commodity, and of afford‘ing a cheaper and more conſtant Supply to the Poor, and preventing Abuſe in that Article of Trade;’ may it therefore pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King’s moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Firſt Day of January, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, whenever the Price of middling Britiſh Wheat, at the Ports and Places where Wheat ſhall be imported into this Kingdom, ſhall appear according to the Methods directed by the ſeveral Acts of Parliament for aſcertaining the Rates and Prices of Corn and Grain imported, or as herein-after directed by this Act to be at or above Forty-eight Shillings per Quarter, or whenever the Price of middling Britiſh Rye, Peaſe, or Beans, ſhall in like Manner appear reſpectively to be at or above Thirty-two Shillings per Quarter, or whenever the Price of middling Britiſh Barley, Beer, or Bigg, ſhall in like Manner appear reſpectively to be at or above Twenty-four Shillings per Quarter, or whenever the Price of middling Britiſh Oats ſhall in like Manner appear to be at or above Sixteen Shillings per Quarter, all Cuſtoms and Duties now payable reſpectively, upon Wheat, Wheat-flour, Rye, Peaſe, Beans, Barley, Beer, Bigg, and Oats, imported into this Kingdom, ſhall reſpectively ceaſe, determine, and be no longer paid or payable during the reſpective Continuance of ſuch reſpective Prices as aforeſaid; and in lieu of the former Duties, a Duty of only Sixpence per Quarter ſhall be laid upon all Wheat; and a Duty of Two pence for every Hundred Weight of Wheat-flour; and a Duty of Three-pence per Quarter ſhall be laid reſpectively upon all Rye, Peaſe, and Beans; and a Duty of Two-pence per Quarter ſhall be laid reſpectively upon all Barley, Beer, and Bigg; and a Duty of Two-pence per Quarter ſhall be laid upon all Oats imported into ſuch Ports and Places, during the Continuance of the Prices aforeſaid; ſuch Duties to be levied, collected, paid, and applied, in the ſame Manner as ſuch former Duties were before the making of this Act: And ſuch Wheat, Wheat-flour, Rye, Peaſe, Beans, Barley, Beer, Bigg, or Oats, may be carried Coaſtwiſe, and entered or landed in any other Ports of this Kingdom at which the Prices of middling Britiſh Corn, Grain, or Flour, are at or above the reſpective Rates aforeſaid, and aſcertained in Manner aforeſaid, and in no other, under ſuch Regulations as Wheat, Wheat-flour, Rye, Peaſe, Beans, Barley, Beer, Bigg, or Oats, of the Growth of this Kingdom, are now allowed to be carried Coaſtwiſe.

In caſe Wheat, Wheat-flour, Rye, &c. be imported, when the Duties not repealed ſhall be due, the ſame may be landed without Payment of Duties;

II. Recital of Act of the Scots Parliament, 1703;

XIV. And whereas the Modes directed by the ſeveral Acts of Parliament aſcertaining the Rates and Prices of Corn and Grain in England, for regulating the Duties payable for Corn and Grain imported into England cannot eaſily, and with Certainty, be carried into Execution in Scotland: And whereas by the Ninth Act, paſſed in the Parliament of Scotland, holden by Her late Majeſty Queen Anne, in the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, intituled, An Act diſcharging Importation of Iriſh Victual, Beef, and Cattle, the Importation of Victual from Ireland, or any other Places beyond the Seas into Scotland, was reſtrained and prohibited, under ſeveral Penalties contained in the ſaid Act, and in other Acts of the Parliament of Scotland therein referred to; but with this Proviſo, That when, by reaſon of Dearth, the Prices of Victual ſhould exceed the Rates ſpecified in the ſaid Act, the Lords of Her Majeſty's Privy Council of Scotland ſhould have Power, after due Trial by them taken of the Prices of Victual, to ſuſpend and diſcharge the Execution of the ſaid prohibitory Acts for ſuch Space of Time as the Exigence of the Dearth ſhould require: And whereas, by the Sixth Article of the Treaty of Union it is provided, that the Prohibition, as then in Force by the Law of Scotland againſt the Importation of Victual from Ireland, or any other Place beyond the Seas, into Scotland, ſhould, after the Union, remain in the ſame Force as it then was, until more proper and effectual Ways ſhould be provided by the Parliament of Great Britain for diſcouraging the Importation of the ſaid Victual from beyond the Sea: And whereas by an Act paſſed in the Fourteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty George the Second, intituled, An Act for licenſing the Importation of Victual from Ireland, and other Parts beyond the Seas, into Scotland, in Time of Dearth and Scarcity, the Power of ſuſpending and diſcharging the Execution of the ſaid prohibitory Laws, which was before veſted in the Lords of the Privy Council, by the ſaid Act of Her late Majeſty Queen Anne, paſſed in the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and three, in the Parliament of Scotland, was thereby veſted in the Judges of the Court of Seſſion, Juſticiary, and Exchequer, in Scotland; and it is declared, that any Nine of them, in Time of Seſſion, and any Five of them, in Time of Vacance, upon the Petition of any Perſon or Perſons deſirous to import Victual from Ireland, or other Parts beyond the Seas, into Scotland, are authoriſed and required to examine, inquire into, and determine the common Market Prices of middling Corn and Grain, as the ſame ſhall and may be commonly bought in County and City of Edinburgh, and to fix and aſcertain the ſame by a proper Act or Determination, to be publiſhed and made known in the Manner therein directed; and if the ſaid Act and Determination ſhall aſcertain the current Prices of Victual in the City and County of Edinburgh to exceed the Rates and Prices ſpecified in the ſaid Act, it is declared to be a ſufficient Warrant to the Collector and other Officers of the ſeveral Ports in Scotland to allow Victual from Ireland, or other Parts beyond the Seas, to be entered, unſhipped, and landed, upon Payment of the Duties charged and directed to be paid upon Foreign Corn imported in and by an Act, paſſed in the Twenty-ſecond Year of His late Majeſty Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the Improvement of Tillage and the Breed of Cattle; which Duties are to be collected and paid according to the Rates and Prices to be aſcertained and determined by the ſaid Judges, in purſuance of the ſaid Act paſſed in the Fourteenth Year of His late Majeſty King George the Second; and the Judges are likewiſe authoriſed and required to determine and aſcertain the Prices of Victual, when they do not exceed the Rates and Prices ſpecified in the ſaid Act, ſo that the aforeſaid prohibitory Laws may thereupon be revived, to prevent further Importation of Victual from Ireland, or other Parts beyond the Seas: And whereas the Mode of aſcertaining the Prices by the ſaid Act for permitting the Importation of Victual from Ireland, and other Parts beyond the Seas, has been found to be attended with great Inconvenience, and is inconſiſtent with the Principle of this Act, in making the Prices of Corn and Grain at the Ports and Places of Importation and Exportation to regulate the Prohibitions, Bounties, and Duties, at ſuch reſpective Ports and Places:' For Remedy hereof, and for rendering this Act more eaſy to be executed in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, the Mode of aſcertaining the Prices of Victual preſcribed by the aforeſaid Act, paſſed in the Fourteenth Year of His late Majeſty King George the Second, and the Powers veſted in the Judges of the Courts of Seſſion, Juſticiary, and Exchequer, for that Purpoſe, ſhall ceaſe and determine; and that thereafter the Sheriff or Steward-deputes of the ſeveral Shires and Stewartries in Scotland, within which there are Ports and Places for the Importation and Exportation of Goods and Merchandiſe, or their Subſtitutes, ſhall, and they are hereby authoriſed and required, Four Times in every Year; that is to ſay, Upon the Firſt Day of November, Firſt Day of February, Firſt Day of May, and Firſt Day of Auguſt, or as ſoon after theſe Days as may be, to ſummon and convene before them Two or more honeſt and ſubſtantial Perſons of their reſpective Counties or Stewartries, not being Corn Merchants nor Factors for Corn, nor any Way intereſted or concerned in any Corn to be imported, and being ſkilful in the Prices of Corn; and upon the Oaths of ſuch Two or more Perſons, which Oaths the ſaid Sheriff or Steward-deputes, or their Subſtitutes reſpectively, are hereby impowered to adminiſter, and by ſuch other Ways and Means as to them ſhall ſeem proper and neceſſary, to examine, inquire into, and determine the common Market Prices of middling Britiſh Corn and Grain, and Oatmeal, as the ſame ſhall and may be commonly bought in their reſpective Counties or Stewartries, and to fix and aſcertain the ſame, by proper Acts or Determinations to be ſubſcribed by them reſpectively; and thereafter, without Delay, to tranſmit their reſpective Acts or Determinations to the Collector or Chief Officer of every Port within their reſpective Counties or Stewartries and the Collector or chief Officer of the ſeveral Ports, to whom ſuch Acts or Determinations ſhall be tranſmitted are hereby ordered and required to hang up the ſame in ſome publick Place in the Cuſtom-houſe of the reſpective Ports, to which all Perſons may reſort for their Information, there to remain until a ſucceeding Act and Determination ſhall be tranſmitted to be hung up in its Place, and to tranſmit a Copy thereof to the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms at Edinburgh, and the Prices ſo aſcertained ſhall regulate the Prohibitions in this Act, and the Duties and Bounties upon the Importation and Exportation of all Corn and Grain imported into or exported from the ſeveral Counties of Scotland,

When the Price does not exceed 16 s. per Boll, Oatmeal from Ireland, &c. with the Veſſel, to be forfeited.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, all Oatmeal imported from Ireland, or from any other Part beyond the Seas, into any Port or Place in Scotland, where the Price of Oatmeal, aſcertained in the Manner before directed, does not exceed Sixteen Shillings per Boll, weighing Eight Stone Troys, as alſo the Ship or Veſſel in which ſuch Oatmeal ſhall be imported, together with her Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture, ſhall be forfeited, and ſhall and may be ſeized by any Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms; and all and every Perſon and Perſons who ſhall be aiding and aſſiſting in the unſhipping of ſuch Oatmeal, or to whoſe Hands the ſame ſhall knowingly come, after the unſhipping thereof, ſhall forfeit Treble the Value of ſuch Oatmeal; and which ſaid Forfeitures and Penalties ſhall and may be proſecuted, ſued for, and recovered, and divided in ſuch Manner and Form, and by ſuch Rules and Regulations, as Penalties and Forfeitures inflicted for unſhipping prohibited and unaccuſtomed Goods in this Kingdom may be proſecuted, ſued for, recovered, and divided, by any Law now in Force.

When Oatmeal does exceed 16 s. it may be imported.

XVI. Provided always, That from and after the Commencement of this Act, it ſhall be lawful to import Oatmeal from Ireland, or from any other Part beyond the Seas, into any Port or Place in Scotland, where the Price of Oatmeal aſcertained in Manner directed by this Act does exceed the Price of Sixteen Shillings per Boll, weighing Eight Stone Troys.

CAP. XLIV.

An Act to allow a Drawback of the Duties of Cuſtoms on the Exportation of Tea to any of His Majeſty's Colonies or Plantations in America; to increaſe the Depoſit on Bohea Tea to be ſold at the India Company's Sales; and to impower the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury to grant Licences to the Eaſt India Company to export Tea Duty-free.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the Twelfth Year of His preſent Majeſty's Reign, (intituled An Act for granting a Drawback of Part of the Cuſtoms upon the Exportation of Tea to Ireland, and the Britiſh Dominions in America; for altering the Drawback upon foreign Sugars exported from Great Britain to Ireland; for continuing the Bounty on the Exportation of Britiſh*-made Cordage*; for allowing the Importation of Rice from the Britiſh Plantations into the Ports of Briſtol, Liverpoole, Lancaſter, and Whitehaven, for immediate Exportation to foreign Parts; and to impower the Chief Magiſtrate of any Corporation to adminiſter the Oath, and grant the Ceritificate required by Law, upon the Removal of certain Goods to London, which have been ſent into the Country for Sale); it is, amongſt other Things, enacted, That for and during the Space of Five Years, to be computed from and after the Fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, there ſhall be drawn back and allowed for all Teas which ſhall be ſold after the ſaid Fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-two, at the publick Sale of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, or which after that Time ſhall be imported, by Licence, in purſuance of the ſaid therein and herein-after mentioned Act, made in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King George the Second, and which ſhall be exported from this Kingdom, as Merchandiſe, to Ireland, or any of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, Three-fifth Parts of the ſeveral Duties of Cuſtoms which were paid upon the Importation of ſuch Teas; which Drawback or Allowance, with reſpect to ſuch Teas as ſhall be exported to Ireland, ſhall be made to the Exporter, in ſuch Manner, and under ſuch Rules, Regulations, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as any Drawback or Allowance was then payable, out of the Duty of Cuſtoms upon the Exportion of foreign Goods to Ireland; and with reſpect to ſuch Teas as ſhall be exported to the Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America, the ſaid Drawback or Allowance ſhall be made in ſuch Manner, and under ſuch Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as any Drawback or Allowance payable out of the Duty of Cuſtoms upon foreign Goods exported to foreign Parts, was, could, or might be made, before the paſſing of the ſaid Act of the Twelfth Year of His preſent Majeſty's Reign, (except in ſuch Caſes as are otherwiſe therein provided for): And whereas it may tend to the Benefit and Advantage of the Trade of the ſaid United Company of Merchants of England, trading to the Eaſt Indies, if the Allowance of the Drawback of the Duties of Cuſtoms upon all Teas ſold at the publick Sales of the ſaid United Company, after the Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, and which ſhall be exported from this Kingdom, as Merchandiſe, to any of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, were to extend to the Whole of the ſaid Duties of Cuſtoms payable upon the Importation of ſuch Teas;' may it therefore pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

After May 1773, on all Teas ſold at publick Sales, or imported by Licence, and afterwards exported as Merchandiſe to America, the Whole Duties of Cuſtoms to be drawn back.

Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That there ſhall be drawn back and allowed for all Teas, which, from and after the Tenth Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, ſhall be ſold at the publick Sales of the ſaid United Company, or which ſhall be imported by Licence, in purſuance of the ſaid Act made in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King George the Second, and which ſhall, at any Time hereafter, be exported from this Kingdom, as Merchandiſe, to any of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, the Whole of the Duties of Cuſtoms payable upon the Importation of ſuch Teas; which Drawback or Allowance ſhall be made to the Exporter in ſuch Manner, and under ſuch Rules, Regulations, and Securities, and ſubject to the like Penalties and Forfeitures, as the former Drawback or Allowance granted by the ſaid recited Act of the Twelfth Year of His preſent Majeſty's Reign, upon Tea exported to the ſaid Britiſh Colonies and Plantations in America was, might, or could be made, and was ſubject to by the ſaid recited Act, or any other Act of Parliament now in Force, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſeveral Clauſes relative thereto were again repeated and re-enacted in this preſent Act.

Act 18 Geo. II. recited.

‘II. And whereas by One other Act made in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King George the Second, (intituled, An Act for repealing the preſent Inland Duty of Four Shillings per Pound Weight upon all Tea ſold in Great Britain; and for granting to His Majeſty certain other inland Duties in lieu thereof; and for better ſecuring the Duty upon Tea, and other Duties of Exciſe; and for purſuing Offenders out of one County into another), it is, amongſt other Things, enacted, That every Perſon who ſhall, at any publick Sale of Tea made by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, be declared to be the beſt Bidder for any Lot or Lots of Tea, ſhall, within Three Days after being ſo declared the beſt Bidder or Bidders for the ſame, depoſit with the ſaid United Company, or ſuch Clerk or Officer as the ſaid Company ſhall appoint to receive the ſame, Forty Shillings for every Tub and for every Cheſt of Tea; and in caſe any ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall refuſe or neglect to make ſuch Depoſit within the Time before limited, he, ſhe, or they, ſhall forfeit and loſe Six Times the Value of ſuch Depoſit directed to be made as aforeſaid; to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, in which no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance, ſhall be allowed; One Moiety of which Forfeiture ſhall go to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to ſuch Perſon as ſhall ſue or proſecute for the ſame; and the Sale of all Teas, for which ſuch Depoſit ſhall be neglected to be made as aforeſaid, is thereby declared to be null and void, and ſuch Teas ſhall be again put up by the ſaid United Company to publick Sale, within Fourteen Days after the End of the Sale of Teas at which ſuch Teas were ſold; and all and every Buyer or Buyers, who ſhall have neglected to make ſuch Depoſit as aforeſaid, ſhall be, and is and are thereby rendered incapable of bidding for or buying any Teas at any future publick Sale of the ſaid United Company: And whereas it is found to be expedient and neceſſary to increaſe the Depoſit to be made by any Bidder or Bidders for any Lot or Lots of Bohea Teas, at the publick Sales of Teas to be made by the ſaid United Company;’ be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Perſon who ſhall, after the Tenth Day of May One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, at any public Sale of Tea to be made by the ſaid United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, be declared to be the beſt Bidder or Bidders for any Lot or Lots of Bohea Tea, ſhall, within Three Days after being ſo declared the beſt Bidder or Bidders for the ſame, depoſit with the ſaid United Company, or ſuch Clerk or Officer as the ſaid United Company ſhall appoint to receive the ſame, Four Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain for every Tub and for every Cheſt of Bohea Tea under the ſame Terms and Conditions, and ſubject to the ſame Forfeitures, Penalties, and Regulations, as are mentioned and contained in the ſaid recited Act of the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of His ſaid late Majeſty.

Every Perſon after May 10, 1773, who ſhall be declared the higheſt Bidder at any publick Sale, ſhall depoſit with the Company 4l. for every Tub or Cheſt of Bohea Tea.

Commiſſioners of the Treaſury may grant Licence to the Eaſt India Company to export to America any Quantity of Tea they ſhall think proper, without Penalty.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, or any Three or more of them, or for the High Treaſurer for the Time being, upon Application made to them by the ſaid United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies for that Purpoſe, to grant a Licence or Licences to the ſaid United Company, to take out of their Warehouſes, without the ſame having been put up to Sale, and to export to any of the Britiſh Plantations in America, or to any Parts beyond the Seas, ſuch Quantity or Quantities of Tea as the ſaid Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treaſurer for the Time being, ſhall think proper and expedient, without incurring any Penalty or Forfeiture for ſo doing; any Thing in the ſaid in-part recited Act, or any other Law, to the Contrary notwithſtanding.

Act Gul. III. recited.

‘IV. And whereas by an Act made in the Ninth and Tenth Years of the Reign of King William the Third, (intituled, An Act for raiſing a Sum not exceeding Two Millions, upon a Fund, for Payment of Annuities, after the Rate of Eight Pounds per Centum per Annum; and for ſettling the Trade to the Eaſt Indies), and by ſeveral other Acts of Parliament which are now in Force, the ſaid United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies are obliged to give Security, under their Common Seal, for Payment of the Duties of Cuſtoms upon all unrated Goods imported by them, ſo ſoon as the ſame ſhall be ſold; and for expoſing ſuch Goods to Sale, openly and fairly, by Way of Auction, or by Inch of Candle, within the Space of Three Years from the Importation thereof: And whereas it is expedient that ſome Proviſion ſhould be made to permit the ſaid United Company,

‘ in certain Caſes, to export Tea, on their own Account, to the Britiſh Plantations in America, or to Foreign Parts, without expoſing ſuch Tea to Sale here, or being charged with the Payment of any Duty for the ſame;’ be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treaſurer for the Time being, to grant a Licence or Licences to the ſaid United Company, to take out of their Warehouſes ſuch Quantity or Quantities of Tea as the ſaid Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treaſurer for the Time being, ſhall think proper, without the ſame having been expoſed to Sale in this Kingdom; and to export ſuch Tea to any of the Britiſh Colonies or Plantations in America, or to Foreign Parts, diſcharged from the Payment of any Cuſtoms or Duties whatſoever; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act, or any other Act, to the Contrary notwithſtanding.

Treaſury may grant Licence to the Company for any Quantity of Tea to be exported to America, diſcharged of Cuſtoms.

V. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That a due Entry ſhall be made at the Cuſtom-houſe, of all ſuch Tea ſo exported by Licence, as aforeſaid, expreſſing the Quantities thereof, at what Time imported, and by what Ship; and ſuch Tea ſhall be ſhipped for Exportation by the proper Officer for that Purpoſe, and ſhall in all other Reſpects, not altered by this Act, be liable to the ſame Rules, Regulations, Reſtrictions, Securities, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as Tea exported to the like Places was liable to before the paſſing of this Act: And upon the proper Officer's Duty, certifying the Shipping of ſuch Tea to the Collector and Comptroller of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms for the Port of London, upon the Back of the Licence, and the Exportation thereof, verified by the Oath of the Huſband or Agent for the ſaid United Company, to be wrote at the Bottom of ſuch Certificate, and ſworn before the ſaid Collector and Comptroller of the Cuſtoms, (which Oath they are hereby impowered to adminiſter), it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch Collector and Comptroller to write off and diſcharge the Quantity of Tea ſo exported from the Warrant of the reſpective Ship in which ſuch Tea was imported.

Entry to be made of all Tea exported by Licence, and ſhipped by the proper Officer; and ſuch Tea is liable to the ſame Rules, Penalties, &c. not hereby altered, as before paſſing this Act. Officers and Collector's Duty on Exportation.

VI. Provided nevertheleſs, That no ſuch Licence ſhall be granted, unleſs it ſhall firſt be made to appear to the Satisfaction of the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, or any Three or more of them, or the High Treaſurer for the Time being, that at the Time of taking out ſuch Teas, for the Exportation of which a Licence or Licences ſhall be granted, there will be left remaining in the Warehouſes of the ſaid United Company, a Quantity of Tea not leſs than Ten Millions of Pounds Weight; any Thing herein, or in any other Act of Parliament, contained to the Contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

No licence to be granted, unleſs 10 Millions lb. wt. of Tea be left in the Warehouſes.

No Houſes, &c. to be built near Mills.

XLVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Thirty-firſt Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, no Houſe or Buildings whatſoever ſhall be erected, or Trees or Holts planted, nearer to any Mill, Engine, or Bank already built, made, erected, or employed, or hereafter to be built, erected, made, or employed, for draining the Fen Lands and Low Grounds within the Limits aforeſaid, than Forty Poles, (being the Poles of Eighteen Feet from ſuch Mill or Engine, and Twelve Feet from ſuch Bank reſpectively): And if any Perſon ſhall build or erect, or cauſe to be built or erected, any Houſe, Barn, or other Building, or ſhall plant any Tree or Holt, within the Diſtance of Forty Poles from ſuch Mill or Engine, or within Twelve Feet from ſuch Bank, every ſuch Perſon ſhall forfeit and pay, for every Houſe or Building, the Sum of One hundred Pounds; to be recovered and paid in like Manner as the Penalties herein-before mentioned for erecting Horſe-mills, Gigs, Engines, or other Devices for throwing of Water; and for every Tree the Sum of Ten Shillings, and Twenty Pounds for every Holt ſo planted; which ſaid Penalties of Ten Shillings and Twenty Pounds are to be levied and paid in like Manner as the Penalties inflicted for cutting Dikes or Ditches within Sixty Feet of the Banks; and the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Five or more of them, are hereby impowered, at any of their Meetings, by an Order under the Hands and Seals of any Five or more of them, to direct their Agents, Workmen, or Servants, to take down ſuch Buildings ſo erected, and to pull up ſuch Trees or Holts ſo planted, contrary to this Act.

XLIX. Provided alſo, and it is hereby further enacted, That if any Trees or Holts are now growing within the Diſtance of Forty Poles from any Mill or Engine already built, or hereafter ſhall be growing or ſtanding within the ſaid Diſtance from any Mill or Engine to be built, or within the Diſtance of Twelve Feet from any Bank already made, or which hereafter ſhall be made, for draining the Lands and Grounds within the Limits aforeſaid, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners, by like Order under their Hands and Seals, to direct the ſame to be pulled or cut down, as if the ſame had been planted ſince the paſſing of this Act; making ſuch Satisfaction to the Owners of ſuch Trees and Holts as ſhall be agreed upon between ſuch Owner and the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Five or more of them; and in caſe any Difference or Diſpute ſhall ariſe between the ſaid Commiſſioners and ſuch Owners touching ſuch Satisfaction, and the ſame cannot be ſettled between them, then ſuch Satisfaction and Recompence ſhall be finally determined in ſuch and the ſame Manner as is herein-before preſcribed for aſcertaining the Recompence to be made for Damage by erecting and making any Works in purſuance of this Act.

Fen Lands, &c. to be aſſeſſed to Poor Rate.

L. And whereas the ſeveral Fen Lands and Low Grounds hereby intended to be drained are in their preſent Situation of ſmall Value, and yield little or no Profit to the Proprietors or to the Publick, and their improved Value entirely depends upon large Sums of Money continually to be expended in the Preſervation thereof, which Sums cannot be raiſed without the Aid of Parliament, ſubjecting the Owners or Occupiers of the ſaid Fen Lands or Low Grounds to an heavy annual Acre-tax, whereby they will not receive a Profit from the ſame according to their extended Rents, but according to a reduced Rent, after deducting the ſaid Acre Rate or Tax: And whereas it is apprehended that Advantage may be taken of ſuch extended nominal Rents by the Churchwardens and Overſeers of the ſaid Pariſh of Yaxley, wherein ſuch Lands lie, to aſſeſs the ſame at a higher Rate than thoſe Lands ought in Juſtice to bear; for Prevention whereof, and to encourage publick Works of draining, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all ſuch Aſſeſſments the ſaid Fen Lands and Low Grounds ſhall hereafter be rated and aſſeſſed to the Church and Poor Rates of the ſaid Pariſh according to their Value only, after deducting the Rates or Taxes hereby impoſed, and not otherwiſe.

Owner or Occupier to cleanſe Dikes.

LII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers, of any Land lying within the Limits aforeſaid, through which any Droveway-dike, Outring-dike, or Diviſion-dike, leading to any of the Mill-drains within the Limits aforeſaid, doth or ſhall paſs, ſhall neglect or refuſe ſufficiently to road, ſcour, cleanſe, open, or repair any ſuch Dike, or to make the ſame of the Depth of Four Feet, and the Width of Nine Feet at the leaſt, after Ten Days Notice in Writing to him, her, or them, from Time to Time, given by the Collector, Receiver, or other Officer of the ſaid Commiſſioners, purſuant to an Order in Writing under the Hands of Five or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners, then it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Collector, Receiver, or other Officer, from Time to Time, to cauſe ſuch Dikes to be roaded, ſcoured, cleanſed, opened, deepened, and repaired, in a ſufficient Manner, and made of the Width aforeſaid, at the proper Coſts, Charges, and Expences of ſuch Owners or Occupiers; and that where-ever a Road or Way ſhall have been made over or acroſs any ſuch Dike, without a ſufficient Tunnel lying therein, to cauſe ſuch Ways or Roads to be taken up, and ſuch Dike to be made of a proper Width and Depth for conveying the Waters through the ſame to the Mill or Mills, Engine or Engines, erected, or to be erected, for draining the ſaid Fen Lands and Low Grounds; and by a Warrant or Precept, under the Hands of Five or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners, to levy all ſuch Charges and Expences as ſhall be occaſioned by the deepening and widening of the ſaid Dikes, or the taking up of ſuch Roads, upon the Goods and Chattels of the Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers, of the ſaid Lands through which the ſaid Dikes ſhall paſs, or upon which they ſhall adjoin, and who ſhall make or continue, or cauſe to be made or continued, ſuch Road or Way as aforeſaid.

LIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to impower the ſaid Commiſſioners, or their Succeſſors, to have, uſe, or exerciſe any Power or Authority whatſoever, over any of the Banks, Dams, Headings, Bridges, or other Works, made, or to be made, by the ſaid Sir Sampſon Gideon, his Heirs or Aſſigns, in or upon a certain Drain called The Twelve Foot Drain, being the Diviſion Fence between the Lands of the ſaid Sir Sampſon Gideon, called Adventurers Lands, and the Eaſt End of the ſaid Diſtrict; but that the ſame ſhall for ever, after the paſſing of this Act, continue veſted in the ſaid Sir Sampſon Gideon, his Heirs and Aſſigns, as if this Act had never been made; any Thing herein contained to the Contrary notwithſtanding.

LIV. And

Perſons aggrieved may appeal to the next Seſſion.

Juſtices to determine Differences.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That all Perſons who ſhall think themſelves aggrieved by the Order or Judgement of any Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, on account of any Offence committed, or ſuppoſed to be committed, againſt this Act, or any Penalties to be levied by virtue thereof, may appeal to the Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid County of Huntingdon, at the next General or Quarter Seſſions of the Peace to be held for the ſaid County, after the Cauſe of Appeal ſhall happen, the Perſon or Perſons ſo appealing firſt entering into a Recognizance, with ſufficient Sureties, to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices, to proſecute ſuch Appeal with Effect, and to pay the Coſts which ſhall be aſcertained by the ſaid Juſtices in the ſaid General or Quarter Seſſions, in caſe ſuch Order or Judgement ſhall be affirmed; and the ſaid Juſtices, in their ſaid General or Quarter Seſſions, are hereby authoriſed and required to hear and determine ſuch Appeal, and give ſuch Coſts to either Party, as they ſhall think reaſonable, and to make ſuch Order therein as to them ſhall appear juſt; which Order ſhall be final and concluſive to all Parties, and ſhall not be removed or removeable by any Writ of Certiorari, or otherwiſe, into any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or elſewhere.

CAP. LI.

An Act to diſcourage the Practice of commencing frivolous and vexatious Suits in His Majeſty's Courts at Weſtminſter, in Cauſes of Action ariſing within the Dominion of Wales; and for further regulating the Proceedings in the Courts of Great Seſſions in Wales.

‘WHEREAS, to the intolerable Vexation and Charge of His Majeſty's Subjects in the Dominion of Wales, it hath been the Practice to commence trifling and frivolous Suits in the Courts at Weſtminſter, upon Cauſes of Action ariſing within the ſaid Dominion of Wales: In order that the ſame may be tried in the neareſt adjoining Engliſh County to that Part of the Dominion of Wales in which the Cauſe of Action has ariſen, to diſcourage the like Practices for the future;’ may it pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, from and after the Firſt Day of January, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, in caſe the Plaintiff in any Action upon the Caſe for Words, Action of Debt, Treſpaſs on the Caſe, Aſſault and Battery, or other perſonal Action, where the Cauſe of ſuch Act ſhall ariſe within the Dominion of Wales, and which ſhall be tried at the Aſſizes, at the neareſt Engliſh County to that Part of the ſaid Dominion of Wales, in which the Cauſe of Action ſhall be laid to ariſe, ſhall not recover, by Verdict, a Debt or Damages to the Amount of Ten Pounds; in ſuch Caſe, if the Judge who tried the Cauſe on Evidence appearing before him, ſhall certify on the Back of the Record of Niſi Prius, that the Defendant or Defendants was or were reſident in the Dominion of Wales at the Time of the Service of the Writ, or other meſne Proceſs ſerved on him, her, or them, in ſuch Action, on ſuch Fact, being ſuggeſted on the Record or Judgement Roll, a Judgement of Nonſuit ſhall be entered againſt the Plaintiff, and ſuch Defendant or Defendants ſhall be intitled to, and have like Judgment and Remedy thereon, to recover ſuch and the like Coſts, againſt the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in every ſuch Action, as if a Verdict had been given by the Jury for the Defendant or Defendants, unleſs the Judge, before whom ſuch Cauſe ſhall be tried, ſhall certify on the Back of the Record, that the Freehold or Title of the Land mentioned in the Plaintiff's was chiefly in Queſtion, or that ſuch Cauſe was proper to be tried in ſuch Engliſh County.

Preamble.

After June 1, 1774, in caſe the Plaintiff in any perſonal Action, &c. where the Cauſe ſhall ariſe in Wales, and be tried at the next Engliſh County to that Dominion, ſhall recover, by Verdict, Damages to the Amount of 10l.; the Defendant ſhall be intitled to Judgement and Remedy thereon, if reſident in Wales at the Time of any Service of the Writ, &c. in ſuch Action.

II. And, in order to prevent tranſitory Actions, where the Cauſe of Action does not amount to Ten Pounds, ariſing within the Principality of Wales, from being brought in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record out of the ſaid Principality, be it further enacted, That in all tranſitory Actions ariſing within the ſaid Principality, which, from and after the Firſt Day of January, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-four, ſhall be brought in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record out of the ſaid Principality of Wales, and the Venue therein, ſhall be laid in any County or Place out of the ſaid Principality, and the Debt or Damages found by the Jury ſhall not amount to the Sum of Ten Pounds, and it ſhall appear upon the Evidence given on the Trial of the ſaid Cauſe, that the Cauſe of Action aroſe in the ſaid Principality of Wales, and that the Defendant or Defendants were reſident in the Dominion of Wales at the Time of the Service of any Writ, or other meſne Proceſs ſerved on him, her, or them, in ſuch Action, and it ſhall be ſo certified, under the Hand of the Judge who tried ſuch Cauſe, upon the Back of the Record of Niſi Prius, (on ſuch Facts being ſuggeſted on the Record or Judgement Roll), a Judgement or Nonſuit ſhall be entered thereon againſt the Plaintiff, and the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall pay to the Defendant or Defendants, in ſuch Action, his or their Coſts of Suit; and the Defendant and Defendants ſhall have like Remedy to recover the ſame as in the Caſe of a Verdict given for the Defendant or Defendants in ſuch Action; and, in the Taxation of all Coſts allowed and given to the Defendant or Defendants by and in purſuance of this Act, the proper Officer ſhall allow to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, out of the Defendant's Coſts, the full Sum given by the Verdict to the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs for his or their Debt or Damages; and, although no Judgement ſhall be entered for the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs upon ſuch Verdict, yet nevertheleſs ſuch Verdict, without any Judgement entered thereon, ſhall be an effectual Bar to any Action or Actions commenced by the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs for the ſame.

In all Actions within Wales which ſhall be brought in Courts of Record out of the ſaid Principality, and the Debt ſhall be found by the Jury to amount to 10l.

III. And whereas by an Act, made in the Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth Years of the Reign of His late Majeſty King Henry the Eighth, intituled, An Act for certain Ordinances in the King's Dominion and Principality of Wales, it is (amongſt other Things) enacted, That there ſhall be holden and kept Seſſions, Twice in every Year, in every of the Shires of the ſaid Dominion and Principality of Wales, the which Seſſions ſhall be called The King's Great Seſſions in Wales; and that the Juſtice tice of Cheſter ſhall hold and keep Seſſions, Twice in every Year, in the Shires of Denbigh, Flint and Montgomery; and likewiſe that the Juſtice of North Wales ſhall hold and keep Seſſions, Twice in every Year, in the Shires of Caernarvon, Merioneth, and Angleſey; and alſo that One Perſon, learned in the Laws of this Realm, by the King's Majeſty to be named and appointed, ſhall be Juſtice of the Shires of Radnor, Brecknock, and Glamorgan; and ſhall likewiſe hold and keep Seſſions, Twice in every Year, in every of the ſame Shires; and likewiſe that One other Perſon, learned in the Laws of this Realm, to be appointed as aforeſaid, ſhall be Juſtice of the Shires of Caermarthen, Pembroke, and Cardigan, and ſhall in like wiſe hold and keep Seſſions, Twice in every Year, in every of the ſame Shires; and that the ſaid Perſons, or Juſtices, and every of them, then being, or that thereafter ſhall be, ſhall have ſeveral Letters Patents and Commiſſions for their Offices under the King's Great Seal of England, to be exerciſed by themſelves, or their ſufficient Deputies, according to the Purpoſes and Intents in the ſaid Ordinances ſpecified: And whereas by One other Act, made in the Eighteenth Year of the Reign of Her late Majeſty Queen Elizabeth, intituled, An Act for the appointing of Juſtices in the Shires of Wales, it is (amongſt other Things) enacted, That the Queen's Highneſs, Her Heirs and Succeſſors, may and ſhall have full Power and Authority, from Time to Time, to conſtitute, name, or appoint, Two or more Perſons, learned in the Laws of this Realm of England, to be Juſtices of and for the ſaid Counties of Cheſter, Flint, Denbigh, and Montgomery; and Two or more, learned as aforeſaid, to be Juſtices of North Wales; (videlicet), of and for the ſaid Shires of Angleſey, Caernarvon, and Merioneth; and likewiſe Two or more learned as aforeſaid, to be Juſtices of and for the Circuits and Shires of Radnor, Glamorgan, and Brecknock; and alſo Two or more, learned as aforeſaid, to be Juſtices of and for the Circuits and Shires of Cardigan, Caermarthen, Pembroke, and the Town and County of Haverford Weſt: And whereas the exerciſing the Power of appointing Deputies by ſuch Juſtices may be attended with Inconvenience; for preventing thereof, be it further enacted, That no Juſtice now appointed, or at any Time hereafter to be appointed, of or for the ſaid County of Cheſter, or of or for any County, Circuit, or Shire, within the ſaid Principality or Dominion of Wales, ſhall have any Power or Authority of exerciſing his Office by Deputy, ſave and except for the Purpoſe of calling and adjourning any Court or Courts, and receiving any Motion or Motions appointed, or eſpecially directed to be made at ſuch Court, and for the further Purpoſe of taking and proclaiming Fines and arraigning Recoveries, in ſuch Court or Courts of each reſpective Great Seſſion and Aſſizes, within the Circuit of ſuch Juſtice; any Law, Statute, or Uſage, to the Contrary notwithſtanding.

Juſtices in Wales may nominate Deputies for the before-mentioned Purpoſes.

IV. Provided always nevertheleſs, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from henceforth it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſeveral and reſpective Juſtices of and for the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Circuits and Counties for the Time being, from Time to Time, and at any Time, as Occaſion may require, by Writing under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, of ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices reſpectively, to nominate, conſtitute, or appoint, any Perſon or Perſons to be his or their Deputy or Deputies, for the Intent and Purpoſe of calling and adjourning any Court or Courts, and receiving any Motion or Motions, appointed or eſpecially directed to be made at ſuch Court, and for the further Purpoſe of taking and proclaiming Fines, and arraigning Recoveries in ſuch Court or Courts of each reſpective Great Seſſion and Aſſizes, within their ſeveral and reſpective Circuits and Counties aforeſaid, which Perſon or Perſons ſo appointed ſhall have full Power and lawful Authority ſo to do.

His Majeſty under His Royal Sign Manual, may appoint Perſons to execute the Office of Juſtices, in place of thoſe who, by Illneſs, ſhall be prevented from attending.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall and may, under His and their Royal Sign Manual, appoint One or more Perſon or Perſons, learned as aforeſaid, to execute the ſaid Office of Juſtice in the ſaid County Palatine of Cheſter, or in any of the ſaid Counties of Wales, for the then next enſuing Great Seſſions, in the Place and Stead of any of the ſaid Juſtices, who ſhall, by Illneſs, be prevented attending upon ſuch Great Seſſions, and ſo as often as the Neceſſity of the Caſe ſhall require; any Law, Uſage, or Cuſtom, to the Contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Suits to be tried by Special Juries; and ſuch Juries may be ſtruck as in the Courts at Weſtminſter.

VI. And whereas it is conceived that the Suitors in the Court of the King's Great Seſſions in the Dominion and Principality of Wales will, in many Caſes, experience great Benefit and Advantage by having their Suits tried by Special Juries; be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtices of His Majeſty's Great Seſſions in Wales, upon Motion made on Behalf of His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, or on Motion of any Proſecutor or Defendant in any Indictment or Information of any Miſdemeanour, or on the Motion of any Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, Defendant or Defendants, in any Action, Cauſe or Suit whatſoever, depending, or to be brought and carried on, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Great Seſſions in Wales, ſhall and may, in caſe ſuch Juſtices in their Diſcretion ſhall think fit, order and appoint a Jury to be ſtruck before the proper Officer of ſuch Courts, for the Trial of any Iſſue joined in any of the ſaid Caſes, in ſuch Manner as Special Juries have been uſually ſtruck in the Courts of Law at Weſtminſter, upon Trials at Bar had in the ſaid Courts; which Jury ſo ſtruck as aforeſaid ſhall be the Jury returned for the Trial of ſuch Iſſue as aforeſaid.

Party applying for a Special Jury ſhall pay the Fees for ſtriking ſuch Jury, and all Expences occaſioned by the Trial of the Cauſe.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Perſon or Party who ſhall, by virtue of this Act, apply for ſuch Special Jury, ſhall not only bear and pay the Fees for ſtriking ſuch Jury, but ſhall alſo bear, pay, and diſcharge all the Expences occaſioned by the Trial of the Cauſe by ſuch Special Jury, and ſhall not have any further or other Allowance for the ſame, upon Taxation of Coſts, than ſuch Perſon or Party would be intitled unto in caſe the Cauſe had been tried by a common Jury, unleſs the Juſtices or Juſtice before whom the Cauſe is tried ſhall, immediately after the Trial, certify in open Court, under his or their Hand or Hands, upon the Back of the Record, that the ſame was a Cauſe proper to be tried by a Special Jury.

Perſons who ſhall ſerve on any Jury ſhall not be allowed above 1 l. 1 s. for ſuch Service.

VIII. And to prevent the Demand or Payment of extravagant Fees of Jurymen returned under the Authority of this Act, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon who ſhall ſerve upon any Jury, appointed or returned by Authority of this Act, ſhall be allowed, or take, for ſerving on any ſuch Jury, more than the Sum of Money which the Juſtices or Juſtice who tries the Iſſue or Iſſues ſhall think juſt and reaſonable, not exceeding the Sum of One Pound One Shilling, except in Cauſes where a View hath been or ſhall be directed.

Juſtices may impower Perſons to take Affidavits concerning Proceedings in their Circuits;

IX. And, for the greater Eaſe and Benefit of all Perſons whomſoever in the taking of Affidavits to be made uſe of and read in the Courts of His Majeſty's Great Seſſions in Wales, in all Matters and Cauſes whatſoever depending, or to be depending, in all or any of the Courts aforeſaid, or in any-wiſe concerning the Proceedings of or in the ſame, be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtices of the reſpective Courts of Great Seſſions in Wales for the Time being ſhall and may, by One or more Commiſſion or Commiſſions, under the Seal of the ſaid reſpective Courts, from Time to Time, as Need ſhall require, impower ſuch and ſo many Perſons as they ſhall think fit and neceſſary, in all and every the ſeveral Shires and Counties within their reſpective Circuits in the ſaid Dominion of Wales, to take and receive all and every ſuch Affidavit and Affidavits as any Perſon or Perſons ſhall be willing and deſirous to make before any of the Perſons ſo impowered in, or concerning any Cauſe, Matter, or Thing depending, or hereafter to be depending, or in any-wiſe concerning any of the Proceedings to be in their reſpective Circuits of Great Seſſions, as the Juſtices of His Majeſty's Court of King's Bench, or Common Pleas, or the Lord Treaſurer, Chancellor, and Barons of the Court of Exchequer for the Time being, do uſe to do; which ſaid Affidavits, taken as aforeſaid, ſhall be filed in the ſeveral and reſpective Offices of the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Courts of Great Seſſions, and the ſame ſhall and may be read and made uſe of in the ſaid reſpective Courts to all Intents and Purpoſes, as other Affidavits taken in the ſaid reſpective Courts now are; and that all and every Affidavit and Affidavits, taken as aforeſaid, ſhall be of the ſame Force as Affidavits taken in the ſaid reſpective Courts now are; and all and every Perſon and Perſons forſwearing him, her, or themſelves, in ſuch Affidavit or Affidavits, ſhall incur and be liable unto the ſame Penalties, as if ſuch Affidavit or Affidavits had been made and taken in open Court; which ſaid ſeveral Commiſſions ſhall be made out by the Prothonotary, upon a Fiat or Warrant from the ſaid Juſtices for the Time being of the ſaid reſpective Courts of Great Seſſions in Wales; and the ſaid Prothonotary ſhall cauſe an Entry to be made in a Book to be kept for that Purpoſe of the Names of the Perſons to whom ſuch Commiſſions are, from Time to Time, granted, and the reſpective Times when iſſued; and the following Fees ſhall be paid for each Commiſſion, and no more; (to wit), The Sum of Two Shillings for the Fiat or Warrant; the Sum of Four Shillings for making out the ſaid Commiſſion, beſides the King's Duty, and Value of the Parchment; and the Sum of Four Shillings for ſealing the ſame; and every Commiſſioner, or Perſon ſo impowered, ſhall take and receive, for the ſwearing of every Affidavit before him, the Sum or Fee of One Shilling, and no more.

and the Affidavits ſo taken ſhall be filed in the Offices of the reſpective Courts.

No Commiſſioner ſhall take an Affidavit during the Time of holding Aſſizes.

X. Provided nevertheleſs, That no Perſon appointed a Commiſſioner as aforeſaid ſhall take or receive any Affidavit during the Time of holding the Great Seſſions, or Aſſizes, for the County or Place in which ſuch Cauſe, Matter, or Thing, ſhall be depending.

Officers who have heretofore taken Affidavits, may continue ſo to do.

XI. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That ſuch Officers of the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Courts of Great Seſſions in Wales, as have heretofore taken or ſworn Affidavits, ſhall and may continue ſo to do, in the ſame Manner as if this Act had not been made; any Thing herein contained to the Contrary notwithſtanding.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the Laws heretofore made to prevent the immoderate drinking of Spirituous Liquors, have, by reaſon of the Smallneſs of the Penalties by thoſe Acts impoſed, been rendered in a great Meaſure ineffectual, and ill-diſpoſed Perſons are thereby encouraged to retail ſuch Liquors, without being firſt authoriſed and licenſed thereto, whereby His Majeſty is not only defrauded of His Duties, but Victuallers and others, who duly take out and pay for ſuch Licences, are greatly injured:' For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if at any Time from and after the Fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, any Perſon or Perſons ſhall preſume by him, her, or themſelves, or by any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever employed by him, her, or them, or for his, her, or their Benefit, to retail any diſtilled Spirituous Liquors, or Strong Waters, without firſt taking out a Licence for that Purpoſe, in Manner as by the ſeveral Statutes in that Caſe made and provided, and now in Force is preſcribed and directed, he, ſhe, or they, ſo offending, ſhall reſpectively forfeit and loſe the Sum of Fifty Pounds for each Offence.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Penalty by this Act impoſed, ſhall and may be ſued for, levied, recovered, and mitigated, by any Law of Exciſe now in Force, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter; and that One Moiety of every ſuch Penalty or Forfeiture ſhall be to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him, her, or them, as ſhall ſue for the ſame.

Penalties to be ſued, proſecuted, and recovered by any Law of Exciſe now in force; One Moiety to go to his Majeſty, and the other to the Perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame.

IV. Provided always, That the ſaid Penalty of Fifty Pounds, by this Act impoſed, ſhall not in any Caſe, either by the Commiſſioners of Exciſe or Juſtices of the Peace, before whom any Offender againſt this preſent Act ſhall be convicted, be mitigated or reduced below the Sum of Five Pounds.

CAP. LXIII.

An Act for eſtabliſhing certain Regulations for the better Management of the Affairs of the Eaſt India Company, as well in India as in Europe.

Preamble.

'WHEREAS the ſeveral Powers and Authorities granted by Charters to the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies have been found, by Experience, not to have ſufficient Force and Efficacy to prevent various Abuſes which have prevailed in the Government and Adminiſtration of the Affairs of the ſaid United Company, as well at Home as in India, to the manifeſt Injury of the Publick Credit, and of the Commercial Intereſts of the ſaid Company; and it is therefore become highly expedient that certain further Regulations, better adapted to their preſent Circumſtances and Condition, ſhould be provided and eſtabliſhed: And whereas the electing and chuſing of Directors of the ſaid United Company every Year, in ſuch Manner as at preſent preſcribed by Charter, has not anſwered the good Purpoſes intended thereby, but, on the contrary, by limiting the Duration of their Office to ſo ſhort a Time, evidently tends to weaken the Authority of the Court of Directors, and to produce Inſtability in the Councils and Meaſures of the ſaid Company:' May it therefore pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That at the next enſuing General Election of Directors of the ſaid United Company, inſtead of an Election of Twenty-four Directors to ſerve for the Space of One Year only, there ſhall be choſen, in ſuch Manner and Order as the Directors of the ſaid United Company for the Time being ſhall appoint, Six Directors expreſsly for the Term of One Year, and Six other Directors for the Term of Two Years, and Six other Directors for the Term of Three Years, and the remaining Six Directors for the Term of Four Years, and not otherwiſe; and from thenceforth yearly and every Year, and at the Expiration of each and every of the ſaid Terms reſpectively, Six new Directors, and no more, ſhall be choſen, from Time to Time, in the Place of ſuch Directors whoſe Term ſhall have expired, and who are hereby declared incapable of being then rechoſen; and at every ſubſequent Election, during the Continuance of the Charter of the ſaid United Company, Six new Directors ſhall be choſen, and ſhall continue to be Directors for the Term of Four Years, and no longer, to be accounted from the Day on which the Election of ſuch Directors was reſpectively made; and in caſe the Office and Authority of any ſuch Director ſhall become void by Death, Removal, or otherwiſe, another ſhall be choſen from Time to Time in his Place, to ſerve as a Director during the Remainder of ſuch Term for which the Perſon whoſe Office ſhall have become void was choſen, and no longer.

At the next enſuing general Election, inſtead of 24, there ſhall be choſen 6 Directors for the Term of One Year; 6 for Two Years; 6 for Three Years; 6 for Four Years; and ſo hereafter yearly.

No Perſon employed in any Office in the Eaſt Indies, ſhall be choſen into the Office of Director until he ſhall return, and be reſident in England for Two Years.

II. And it is hereby further enacted, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, employed in any Civil or Military Station, Office, or Capacity whatſoever, in the Eaſt Indies, or claiming or exerciſing any Power, Authority, or Juriſdiction therein, ſhall be capable of being appointed or choſen into the Office of Director, until ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall have returned to and been reſident in England for the Space of Two Years; any Law or Uſage to the Contrary notwithſtanding.

All Transfers made in a colluſive Manner, to qualify Voters at Elections;

III. And whereas it has been found, that the Proviſion made by the Charter of the Tenth Year of the Reign of King William the Third, under which, Perſons poſſeſſed of Five hundred Pounds Stock are intitled to vote in General Courts, has been productive of much Inconvenience in the preſent Situation of the Company, and tends to promote the miſchievous Practice of making colluſive Transfers, which Practice hath not been ſufficiently prevented by the Proviſion made by an Act of the Seventh Year of His preſent Majeſty's Reign, whereby the Right of voting is limited to Perſons having been Six Calendar Months in Poſſeſſion of their Stock; be it further enacted, That all Transfers of Stocks whatſoever made to any Perſon or Perſons, in any fraudulent or colluſive Manner, on Purpoſe to qualify him, her, or them, to give his, her, or their Vote or Votes, at any Election of Members of the Court of Directors, or in any General Court of the ſaid United Company, (ſubject neverthelesſ to Conditions or Agreements, either Verbal or in Writing, to defeat or determine ſuch Transfers, or to retransfer or return the ſame), ſhall be deemed and taken againſt thoſe Perſons who transferred the ſame, as free and abſolute, and be holden and enjoyed, by all and every ſuch Perſon or Perſons to whom ſuch Transfer ſhall be made, as aforeſaid, freely and abſolutely acquitted, exonerated, and diſcharged, of and from all Manner of Truſts, Conditions, Powers of Revocation, Proviſoes of Redemption, or other Defeazances between or with the ſaid Parties, or any other Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for them; and that all Bonds, Covenants, Notes, Collateral or other Securities, Contracts, or Agreements, between or with the ſaid Parties, or any other Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for them, or any of them, for the retransferring, redeeming, revoking, or defeating ſuch Transfer, or for the reſtoring or retransferring thereof, or any Part thereof, to any Perſon or Perſons who made ſuch Transfer, or to any other Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for them, or any of them, ſhall be null and void, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever: And that every Perſon to whom ſuch Transfer ſhall have been made, and who ſhall have voted by virtue thereof, at any Election of Members of the Court of Directors, in any General Court of the ſaid United Company, and who ſhall afterwards retransfer or return the ſame, in Conſequence of any Truſt, Condition, Powers of Revocation, Proviſo of Redemption, or other Defeazance whatſoever, as aforeſaid, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of One thouſand Pounds; One Moiety whereof ſhall go and be diſpoſed of to any Perſon who ſhall ſue for the ſame, and the other Moiety to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors; to be recovered, together with full Coſts of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Privilege, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than One Imparlance, ſhall be admitted or allowed; and that from and after the Firſt Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, no Member or Proprietor of the ſaid United Company ſhall be deemed qualified, or capable to vote, or be admitted to give any Vote or Votes, at any Election of Directors, or at any General Court of the ſaid United Company, in reſpect or any Stock amounting to leſs than One thouſand Pounds, nor in reſpect of any Stock transferred to him, her, or them, after the ſaid Firſt Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, until he, ſhe, or they, ſhall have been poſſeſſed of ſuch Stock Twelve Calendar Months, in his, her, or their own Right, and not in Truſt for any other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, freed and diſcharged of all Incumbrances which can or may affect the ſame, unleſs ſuch Stock ſhall have been acquired, or ſhall have come to ſuch Proprietor by Bequeſt, or by Marriage, or by Succeſſion to any Inteſtate's Eſtates, or by the Cuſtom of the City of London, or by any Deed of Settlement after the Death of any Perſon who ſhall have been intitled for Life to the Dividends of ſuch Stock; any Law, Statute, or Uſage, to the Contrary notwithſtanding.

and all Bonds, Covenants, &c. with Perſons in in Truſt, ſhall be null and void: And every Perſon to whom Transfers ſhall have been made, or who ſhall have voted by virtue thereof, at any Election, who ſhall afterwards retransfer the ſame, in conſequence of any Truſts, &c. ſhall forfeit, for every Offence, 1000 l. to be recovered, with full Coſts, at Weſtminſter; and after Oct. 1, 1773, no Proprietor ſhall vote at any Election of Directors in reſpect of Stock amounting to leſs than 1000 l. nor until he ſhall have been poſſeſſed of ſuch 12 Calendar Months.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Member or Proprietor of the ſaid United Company, who ſhall be poſſeſſed, for the Time or Term aforeſaid, in his or her own Right, of Three thouſand Pounds, Capital Stock of the ſaid Company, ſhall be intitled to give Two Votes at any Election of Directors, or at any Ballot of the ſaid Company; and every Member or Proprietor who ſhall be poſſeſſed, for the Time or Term aforeſaid, of Six thouſand Pounds, in his or her own Right, ſhall be intitled to give Three Votes; and every Member or Proprietor who ſhall be poſſeſſed for the Time or Term aforeſaid, of Ten thouſand Pounds, or more, ſhall be intitled to give Four Votes at ſuch Election or Ballot; and the Oath and Affirmation herein-after reſpectively preſcribed, ſhall, as Occaſion ſhall require, be altered in ſuch Manner as ſhall be neceſſary to compriſe ſuch Right of voting.

Every Proprietor poſſeſſed of 3000 l. Capital Stock ſhall be intitled to Two Votes at any Election; if poſſeſſed of 6000 l. he ſhall have Three Votes; and when poſſeſſed of 10,000 l. is intitled to Four Votes.

V. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted, That any Member or Proprietor of the ſaid United Company ſhall be deemed qualified or capable to vote, and ſhall be admitted to give his or her Vote or Votes, at any Election of Directors, or at any General Court of the ſaid United Company, that ſhall be held after the Firſt Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, in reſpect of any ſuch Stock, not amounting to leſs than One thouſand Pounds, whereof he or ſhe ſhall have been poſſeſſed from the ſaid Firſt Day of October, any Thing herein contained to the Contrary notwithſtanding: And the Oath and Affirmation herein-after reſpectively preſcribed ſhall be, as Occaſion ſhall require, altered in ſuch Manner in reſpect of the Continuance of the Poſſeſſion of ſuch Stock, as to compriſe the Time aforeſaid.

Every Member ſhall be deemed qualified to vote at Elections of Directors, in reſpect of 1000 l. Stock, after Oct. 1, 1773.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Firſt Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, upon every Election to be made of any Member or Members of the Court of Directors, and upon every Ballot to be taken at any General Court of the ſaid United Company, every Member or Proprietor of the ſaid Company ſhall, before admitted to vote at ſuch Election, or in ſuch General Court, firſt take the Oath hereafter mentioned before Two or more of the Directors of the ſaid United Company, who are hereby impowered to adminiſter ſuch Oath; (that is to ſay), Upon Election of Directors, every Proprietor ſhall, before admitted to vote, take the following Oath.

I A. B. do ſwear, (or being One of the People called Quakers, do ſolemnly affirm), That the Sum of One thouſand Pounds or more of the Capital Stock of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, ſtanding in my Name, doth at this Time belong, and hath for the Space of Twelve Calendar Months actually belonged to me, in my own Right, and not in Truſt for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever; and that I have been in the actual Receipt of the Dividends and Profits thereof for my own Uſe, freed and diſcharged of all Incumbrances which can or may affect the ſame, for the ſaid Space of Twelve Calendar Months; or that the ſame came to me within the Time aforeſaid by Bequeſt, or by Mar- riage, or by Succeſſion to an Inteſtate's Eſtate, or by the Cuſtom of the City of London, or by Settlement; and that ſuch Stock has not been transferred or made to me fraudulently or colluſively on Purpoſe to qualify me to give my Vote; and that I have not before given my Vote on this Ballot.

So help me GOD.

Perſons committing wilful Perjury, or corruptly ſuborning others ſo to do, ſhall be liable to the Penalties in Act 5 Eliz. and 2 Geo. II.

And in caſe any Perſon taking the Oath or Affirmation hereby appointed ſhall thereby commit wilful Perjury, and be thereof convicted; and if any Perſon do unlawfully or corruptly procure or ſuborn any other Perſon to take the ſaid Oath or Affirmation, in order to vote, whereby he or ſhe ſhall commit ſuch wilful Perjury, and ſhall be thereof convicted, he, ſhe, and they, for every ſuch Offence, ſhall incur ſuch Pains and Penalties as are in and by Two Acts of Parliament, the One made in the Fifth Year of the late Queen Elizabeth, intituled, An Act for puniſhing ſuch Perſons as ſhall procure or commit wilful Perjury, or ſuborn or procure any Perſon to commit any wilful or corrupt Perjury; the other made in the Second Year of His Majeſty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the more effectual preventing, and further Puniſhment of Forgery, Perjury, and Subornation of Perjury, and to make it Felony to ſteal Bonds, Notes, or other Securities, for Payment of Money, directed to be inflicted for Offences committed contrary to the ſaid Acts.

Manner of Procedure in Caſes of Indictments and Informations laid in the King's Bench.

XL. And whereas the Proviſions made by former Laws for the hearing and determining in England Offences committed in India have been found ineffectual, by reaſon of the Difficulty of proving in this Kingdom Matters done there; be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Caſes of Indictments or Informations, laid or exhibited in the ſaid Court of King's Bench, for Miſdemeanours or Offences committed in India, it ſhall and may be lawful for His Majeſty's ſaid Court, upon Motion to be made on Behalf of the Proſecutor, or of the Defendant or Defendants, to award a Writ or Writs of Mandamus, requiring the Chief Juſtice and Judges of the ſaid Supreme Court of Judicature for the Time being, or the Judges of the Mayor's Court at Madraſs, Bombay, or Bencoolen, as the Caſe may require, who are hereby reſpectively authoriſed and required accordingly to hold a Court, with all convenient Speed, for the Examination of Witneſſes, and receiving other Proofs concerning the Matters charged in ſuch Indictments or Informations reſpectively; and, in the mean Time, to cauſe ſuch publick Notice to be given of the holding the ſaid Court, and to iſſue ſuch Summons or other Proceſs, as may be requiſite for the Attendance of Witneſſes, and of the Agents or Counſel, of all or any of the Parties reſpectively, and to adjourn, from Time to Time, as Occaſion may require; and ſuch Examination as aforeſaid ſhall be then and there openly and publickly taken viva voce in the ſaid Court, upon the reſpective Oaths of Witneſſes, and the Oaths of ſkilful Interpreters, adminiſtered according to the Forms of their ſeveral Religions; and ſhall, by ſome ſworn Officer of ſuch Court, be reduced into One or more Writing or Writings on Parchment, in caſe any Duplicate or Duplicates ſhould be required by or on Behalf of any of the Parties intereſted, and ſhall be ſent to His Majeſty, in His Court of King's Bench, cloſed up, and under the Seals of Two or more of the Judges of the ſaid Court, and One or more of the ſaid Judges ſhall deliver the ſame to the Agent or Agents of the Party or Parties requiring the ſame; which ſaid Agent or Agents, (or, in caſe of his or their Death, the Perſon into whoſe Hands the ſame ſhall come), ſhall deliver the ſame to One of the Clerks in Court of His Majeſty's Court of King's Bench, in the publick Office, and make Oath that he received the ſame from the Hands of One or more of the Judges of ſuch Court in India, (or if ſuch Agent be dead, in what Manner the ſame came into his Hands); and that the ſame has not been opened, or altered, ſince he ſo received it, (which ſaid Oath ſuch Clerk in Court is hereby authoriſed and required to adminiſter): And ſuch Depoſitions, being duly taken and returned, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, ſhall be allowed and read, and ſhall be deemed as good and competent Evidence as if ſuch Witneſs had been preſent, and ſworn and examined viva voce at any Trial for ſuch Crimes or Miſdemeanors, as aforeſaid, in His Majeſty's ſaid Court of King's Bench, any Law or Uſage to the Contrary notwithſtanding; and all Parties concerned ſhall be intitled to take Copies of ſuch Depoſitions at their own Coſts and Charges.

Offences againſt this Act committed by the Chief Juſtices or Judges to be determined by the Court of King's Bench.

XLI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe the ſaid Chief Juſtice, or Judges of the ſaid Supreme Court of Judicature, or any of them, for the Time being, ſhall commit any Offence againſt this Act, or be guilty of any corrupt Practice, or other Crime, Offence, or Miſdemeanour, in the Execution of their reſpective Offices, it ſhall and may be lawful for His Majeſty's ſaid Court of King's Bench in England, upon an Information or Indictment laid or exhibited in the ſaid Court for ſuch Crime, Offence, or Miſdemeanour, upon Motion to be made in the ſaid Court, to award ſuch Writ or Writs of Mandamus, as aforeſaid, requiring the Governor-general, and Council of the ſaid United Company's Settlement at Fort William aforeſaid, who are hereby reſpectively authoriſed and required accordingly to aſſemble themſelves in a reaſonable Time, and to cauſe all ſuch Proceedings to be had and made as are herein-before reſpectively directed and preſcribed concerning the Examination of Witneſſes; and ſuch Examination, ſo taken, ſhall be returned and proceeded upon in the ſame Manner, in all Reſpects, as if the ſeveral Directions herein-before preſcribed and enacted in that Behalf were again repeated.

The Chancellor, or Speaker of the Houſe of Commons, may iſſue Warrants for the Examination of Witneſſes in India; which ſhall be deemed competent Evidence to both Houſes of Parliament.

XLII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Caſes of Proceedings in Parliament, touching any Offences againſt this Act, or any other Offences committed in India, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Lord High Chancellor, or Speaker of the Houſe of Lords, and alſo for the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons for the Time being, in like Manner, to iſſue his or their Warrant or Warrants to the Governor-general and Council of the ſaid United Company's Preſidency of Fort William, and to the Chief Juſtice and Judges of the ſaid Supreme Court of Judicature, or the Judges of the Mayor's Court at Madraſs, Bombay, or Bencoolen, as the Caſe may require, for the Examination of Witneſſes; and ſuch Examination ſhall be returned to the ſaid Lord High Chancellor, or Speaker of the Houſe of Lords, or to the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons reſpectively, and proceeded upon in the ſame Manner, in all Reſpects, as if the ſeveral Directions herein-before preſcribed and enacted in that Behalf were again particularly repeated; and every ſuch Examination, returned either to the Lord Chancellor, or Speaker of the Houſe of Lords, or to the Speaker of the Houſe of Commons, as aforeſaid, ſhall be deemed good and competent Evidence, and ſhall be allowed and read in both Houſes of Parliament, or either of them reſpectively, as Occaſion may require; any Law or Uſage to the Contrary notwithſtanding.

XLIII. And whereas, by the Uſage and Cuſtom of Parliament, no Proceedings by Bill in Parliament have Continuance from One Seſſion to another: And whereas it would be impracticable that the Examination taken upon ſuch Warrant, as aforeſaid, could ever be returned within the ordinary Length of a Seſſion of Parliament; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Firſt Day of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, no Proceedings in Parliament touching any Offence committed, or to be committed, in India, wherein ſuch Warrant as aforeſaid ſhall have been iſſued, ſhall be diſcontinued by any Prorogation or Diſſolution of the Parliament, but that ſuch Proceedings may be reſumed and proceeded upon in a ſubſequent Seſſion, or in a ſubſequent Parliament, in either Houſe of Parliament, in like Manner, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as they might have been in the Courſe of One and the ſame Seſſion; any Law, Uſage, or Cuſtom to the Contrary notwithſtanding.

XLIV. And whereas His Majeſty's Subjects are liable to be defeated of their ſeveral Rights, Titles, Debts, Dues, Demands, or Suits, for which they have Cauſe ariſing in India againſt other Subjects of His Majeſty; now, for preventing ſuch Failure of Juſtice, be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That when, and as often as the ſaid United Company, or any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, ſhall commence and proſecute any Action or Suit, in Law or Equity, for which Cauſe hath ariſen, or ſhall hereafter ariſe in India, againſt any other Perſon or Perſons whatever, in any of His Majeſty's Courts at Weſtminſter, it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch Court reſpectively, upon Motion there to be made, to provide and award ſuch Writ or Writs, in the Nature of a Mandamus, or Commiſſion, as aforeſaid, to the Chief Juſtice and Judges of the ſaid Supreme Court of Judicature for the Time being, or the Judges of the Mayor's Court at Madraſs, Bombay, or Bencoolen, as the Caſe may require, for the Examination of Witneſſes, as aforeſaid; and ſuch Examination, being duly returned, ſhall be allowed and read, and ſhall be deemed good and competent Evidence, at any Trial or Hearing between the Parties in ſuch Cauſe or Action, in the ſame Manner, in all Reſpects, as if the ſeveral Directions herein-before preſcribed and enacted in that Behalf were again repeated.

Writs of Mandamus may be awarded by the Courts at Weſtminſter, when the Company commence Suits in Law or Equity there.

XLV. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it enacted, That no ſuch Depoſitions, taken and returned as aforeſaid by virtue of this Act, ſhall be allowed or permitted to be given in Evidence in any capital Caſes, other than ſuch as ſhall be proceeded againſt in Parliament; any Thing in this Act contained to the Contrary notwithſtanding.

No Depoſitions returned to be allowed as Evidence, in Caſes not proceeded againſt in Parliament.

The Privileges of the Company, not hereby varied, ſhall remain in Force.

XLVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall be deemed and taken to be a Publick Act; of which Notice ſhall be judicially taken by all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons whatſoever, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

Publick Act.

CAP. LXIV.

An Act for granting to His Majeſty a Sum of Money to be raiſed by Exchequer Bills; and to be advanced and applied in the Manner, and upon the Terms therein mentioned, for the Relief of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies.

Preamble.

‘WHEREAS the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies do at preſent labour, and have, for ſome Time paſt, laboured under great and unuſual Difficulties in the carrying on of their Affairs, from which it greatly imports the Publick, as well as the ſaid United Company, that they ſhould, as ſpeedily as poſſible, be relieved: And whereas the ſaid Company, finding themſelves under the Neceſſity of applying to Parliament for Relief did, by their Petition to the Houſe of Commons, make Application for the Loan of One Million five hundred thouſand Pounds, or ſo much as ſhould be wanted to be advanced, and repaid in ſuch Manner, and to be attended with ſuch other Conditions and Proviſions as in their ſaid Petition is ſet forth, in conſequence whereof the Houſe of Commons came to ſeveral Reſolutions, ſpecifying the Terms upon which it might be expedient for the Publick to advance to the ſaid United Company the Sum of One million four hundred thouſand Pounds, and the ſeveral Limitations which ought to accompany ſuch Loan: And whereas the ſaid United Company did, by a ſubſequent Petition, declare their Determination to depend on the Laws of their Country, and ſubmit to the temporary Difficulties which may attend the preſent Situation of their Affairs, rather than receive the Loan offered to them upon the Conditions preſcribed: And whereas, in caſe the ſaid Company ſhould not be forthwith aſſiſted by the Publick with the Advance of a conſiderable Sum of Money, they would remain altogether unable to provide for the Payment of their Debts, ſome of which Debts being due to the Publick, and others to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, the Payment thereof could not long be poſtponed without great Prejudice to the Publick Service, and Diſadvantage to publick Credit, and yet could not be expedited or ſecured otherwiſe than by the Uſe of ſuch Methods as muſt be attended with Conſequences the moſt fatal to the ſaid United Company; and, foraſmuch as upon Conſideration of the ſeveral Matters before mentioned, it appears abſolutely neceſſary that immediate Proviſion ſhould be made by Parliament for giving Aſſiſtance to the ſaid Company, in ſuch Manner, and upon ſuch Terms, as may be beſt calculated for effecting the Preſervation of the ſaid United Company, and the Re-eſtabliſhment of their Affairs, without leaving it in the Power of the General Court of Proprietors, by withholding their Conſent to the Acceptance of ſuch Aſſiſtance, to expoſe, at once, each ſeparate Proprietor of Eaſt India Stock, the Company itſelf, the Creditors of the Company, and the Publick, to all the Miſchiefs which muſt attend the Want of ſuch Aſſiſtance, as aforeſaid: And whereas it hath been reſolved that a Sum, not exceeding One million four hundred thouſand Pounds, be granted to His Majeſty, to be applied for the Purpoſe of relieving the Eaſt India Company, and for ſecuring to the Creditors of the ſaid Company a more ſpeedy Satisfaction of their Demands:’ Now, to the End that no Want or Failure may happen or be made by Reaſon or Means of ſuch Grant, and the Application of the ſame, in the Aids granted, or to be granted, in this Seſſion of Parliament, for defraying the ſeveral publick Services, and for anſwering which the ſaid Aids were, or may be intended to be applied; and, for the better ſupplying the ſaid Sum of One million four hundred thouſand Pounds, and applying the ſame in the moſt effectual Manner for the Purpoſes above mentioned; we Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, do moſt humbly beſeech Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, now and for the Time being, or any Three or more of them, or for the High Treaſurer for the Time being, and he and they reſpectively are hereby authoriſed and impowered, at any Time or Times before the Firſt Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, by his or their Warrant or Warrants, to direct, or cauſe to be prepared and made, at the Receipt of His Majeſty's Exchequer, any Number of Exchequer Bills for ſuch Sum or Sums of Money as he or they ſhall think moſt proper and convenient, ſo as all the Principal Monies to be contained in the Bills ſo to be made forth by virtue of this Act do not exceed in the Whole the ſaid Sum of One Million four hundred thouſand Pounds, (excluſive of any Exchequer Bills that are or may be made forth by virtue of any other Act or Acts paſſed in this Seſſion of Parliament for the publick Service); and the ſaid Exchequer Bills, ſo to be made forth in purſuance of this Act, ſhall bear an Intereſt not exceeding the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum, and proportionably for any greater or leſs Sum to be contained therein, to be payable to the Bearers thereof reſpectively; which ſaid Exchequer Bills ſhall be made out in the like Manner, Form, and Order, and according to the ſame or like Rules and Directions, as in and by an Act of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intitled, An Act for continuing and granting to His Majeſty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, for the Service of the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, are enacted and preſcribed concerning the Exchequer Bills authoriſed to be made forth in purſuance of the ſaid Act.

Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, before Oct. 1, 1773, are to cauſe Exchequer Bills, for 1,400,000 l. to be applied for Relief of the Eaſt India Company,

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Clauſes, Proviſoes, Powers, Privileges, Advantages, Penalties, Forfeitures, and Diſabilities, contained in the ſaid laſt-mentioned Act, relating to the Exchequer Bills authoriſed to be made out by the ſame Act, (except ſuch Clauſes as do charge the ſame on the Duties granted and contained by the ſame Act, and except ſuch Clauſes as limit the Rate of Intereſt to be paid for the Forbearance of the Money lent on the Credit of the ſaid Act, and alſo except as is herein-after mentioned), ſhall be applied and extended to the Exchequer Bills to be made forth in purſuance of this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſame Exchequer Bills had been originally authoriſed by the ſaid laſt mentioned Act, or as if the ſaid ſeveral Clauſes or Proviſoes had been particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

Clauſes in the Malt-tax Act to extend to this Act.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Exchequer Bill or Bills, to be made out by virtue of this Act, ſhall, after the ſame hath or have been iſſued at the Receipt of the Exchequer, be afterwards, at any Time before the Sixth Day of April, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, received or taken, or paſs or be current, to any Receiver or Collector in Great Britain, of the Cuſtoms, Exciſe, or any Revenue, Supply, Aid, or Tax whatſoever, due or payable to His Majeſty, His Heirs or Succeſſors, or at the Receipt of the Exchequer, from any ſuch Receiver or Collector, or from any other Perſon or Perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, otherwiſe or on any other Account than for the Diſcharge and cancelling of ſuch Bills, in caſe the ſame ſhall be in due Courſe or Order of Payment before the ſaid Sixth Day of April, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine; nor ſhall any Receiver or Collector exchange, at any Time, before the Sixth Day of April, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, for any Money of ſuch Revenues, Aids, Taxes, or Supplies, in his Hands, any Exchequer Bill or Bills which ſhall have been iſſued as aforeſaid, by virtue of this Act; nor ſhall any Action be maintained againſt any ſuch Receiver or Collector for neglecting or refuſing to exchange any ſuch Bill or Bills for ready Money before the ſaid Sixth Day of April, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, any Thing in the ſaid Act made in this Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for continuing and granting to His Majeſty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, for the Service of the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, or this Act, contained to the Contrary notwithſtanding.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch Exchequer Bills, together with the Intereſt, Premium, Rate, and Charges, incident to or attending the ſame, ſhall be, and are hereby charged and chargeable upon, and ſhall be repaid and borne by and out of the Monies to be paid into the Receipt of His Majeſty's Exchequer by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, in the Manner, and at the Times, herein-after directed and appointed: And in caſe ſuch Monies, ſo to be paid into the ſaid Receipt of the Exchequer, ſhall not be ſufficient to ſatisfy and diſcharge all the Principal Monies contained in ſuch Exchequer Bills, together with all the Intereſt, Premium, Rate, and Charges incident to and attending the ſame, and that ſhall incur and grow due thereupon before the Sixth Day of April, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine; then, and in ſuch Caſe, the ſaid Exchequer Bills, or ſuch Part thereof as ſhall remain unſatiſfied and uncancelled, together with all the Intereſt due, or to grow due thereupon, and all other Charges and Expences incurred, or to be incurred, in reſpect of the ſame Exchequer Bills, ſhall be charged and chargeable upon, and payable out of, all or any the Aids or Supplies that ſhall or may be granted by Parliament, for the Service of the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine: And, in caſe ſufficient Aids or Supplies for that Purpoſe ſhall not be granted before the Fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, then all the ſaid Exchequer Bills, with the Intereſt, Premium, Rate, and Charges, incident to or attending the ſame, ſhall be, and are hereby charged and chargeable upon ſuch Monies as at any Time or Times at or after the ſaid Fifth Day of July, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-nine, ſhall be or remain in the Receipt of the Exchequer of the Surpluſſes, Exceſſes, Overplus Monies, and other Revenues, compoſing the Fund commonly called The Sinking Fund, (except ſuch Monies of the ſaid Sinking Fund as are appropriated to any particular Uſe or Uſes by any Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf); and ſuch Monies of the ſaid Sinking Fund ſhall and may be iſſued and applied, as ſoon as the ſame can be regularly ſtated and aſcertained, for and towards paying off, cancelling, and diſcharging, ſuch Exchequer Bills ſo remaining uncancelled and unpaid, together with the Intereſt, Premium, Rate, and Charges, until the Whole of them ſhall be paid off, cancelled, and diſcharged, or Money ſufficient for that Purpoſe be kept and reſerved in the Exchequer, to be payable, on Demand, to the reſpective Proprietors thereof.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to advance or lend to His Majeſty, at the Receipt of the Exchequer, upon the Credit of the Exchequer Bills directed to be made forth by virtue of this Act, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of One million four hundred thouſand Pounds; any Thing in an Act, made in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of

CAP. LXV.

An Act for explaining Two Acts, made in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of King George the Firſt, and the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty, in relation to the Stamp-duties upon News-papers.

Preamble.

Act 11 Geo. I. and Act 30 Geo. II. recited.

Duties of the before-recited Acts continued by this Act.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His Majeſty King George the Firſt, after reciting, amongſt other Things, that the Authors or Printers of ſeveral Journals, Mercuries, and other News-papers, did, with an Intent to defeat the Payments of the Duties therein mentioned, and in Defraud of the Crown, ſo contrive as to print their ſaid Journals and News-papers on One Sheet and a Half Sheet of Paper each, and by that Means they did neither pay the Duties of One Penny for each Sheet, nor a Halfpenny for the Half Sheet, as by Law they ought to have done, but entered them as Pamphlets, and paid only Three Shillings for each Impreſſion thereof, whereby His Majeſty had been much injured in his Revenue, and the Printers of other News-papers, who did regularly pay the ſaid Duties, were great Sufferers; it was enacted and declared, That ſuch Journals, Mercuries, and News-papers, ſo printed on One Sheet and Half Sheet of Paper, ſhould not, for the future, be deemed or taken as Pamphlets to be entered, and to pay only Three Shillings for each Impreſſion thereof: And it was alſo further enacted, That, from and after the Twenty-fifth Day of April, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty-five, the following Duties ſhould be paid to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, upon every Journal, Mercury, or other publick News-papers, which ſhould be printed and publiſhed in Great Britain; that is to ſay, For every Sheet of Paper on which any Journal, Mercury, or other News-papers whatſoever, ſhould be printed, a Duty of One Penny Sterling; and for every Half Sheet thereof the Sum of One Halfpenny Sterling; as by the ſaid recited Act, relation being thereunto had, may more fully and at large appear: And whereas by another Act of Parliament, made in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King George the Second, an additional Duty of One Halfpenny was impoſed upon every News-paper, or Paper containing publick News, Intelligence, or Occurrences, printed in Great Britain, to be diſperſed and made publick, whether the ſame be contained in Half a Sheet, or any leſs Piece of Paper, or in any Paper larger than Half a Sheet, and not exceeding One whole Sheet, over and above all other Rates and Duties: And whereas Doubts have ariſen whether Journals, Mercuries, Chronicles, or other News-papers, printed on more than on One Sheet and a Half of Paper, might not be entered as Pamphlets, and pay only Three Shillings for each Impreſſion thereof, inſtead of the Duty chargeable on every Sheet of each Copy thereof; and certain Printers and Publiſhers of Journals, Mercuries, Chronicles, and other News-papers, have increaſed the Number of Sheets on which the ſame have been printed, with an Intent to evade the Payment of the ſaid Duties, and in fraud of His Majeſty's Revenue:' For Remedy whereof, be it enacted and declared by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid herein-before recited Acts of Parliament, and the Duties thereby granted on Journals, Mercuries, and other publick News-papers, were meant and intended, and do accordingly extend to, and charge with, the ſaid Duties reſpectively, every Sheet, and every Half Sheet of Paper, on which any Journal, Mercury, Chronicle, or other publick News-paper, or Paper containing publick News, Intelligence, or Occurrences, were or ſhall be printed, whether ſuch Journals, Mercuries, Chronicles, or other publick News-papers, or Papers containing publick News, Intelligence, or Occurrences, were or ſhall be contained in a greater or leſs Number of Sheets or Half Sheets of Paper; any Thing in the ſaid recited Acts, or any other Act of Parliament, to the Contrary thereof in any-wiſe notwithſtanding.

CAP. LXVII.

‘ been clandeſtinely brought and imported into this Kingdom, and privately run on Shore and ſold here; and there is great Reaſon to believe that ſeveral Parcels of ſuch painted Paper, which, upon Importation, have been entered for private Uſe, and paid the Duties impoſed by Law upon painted Paper ſo imported, have nevertheleſs afterwards been ſold and diſpoſed of in this Kingdom, to the great Prejudice of the Paper Stainers and Artificers in that Branch of Buſineſs here: And whereas all Paper, printed, painted, or ſtained, in Great Britain, is liable to an additional Duty of One Penny Halfpenny for every Yard Square, which Duty is not chargeable upon the Importation of Paper, printed, painted, or ſtained, in foreign Parts; and it may tend to diſcourage the clandeſtine and illegal Importation and Sale of Foreign painted Paper, and to encourage the Manufacture of painted Paper in this Kingdom, if the Importation of ſuch Paper to be ſold here was permitted, ſubject to the like additional Duty as is charged upon ſuch Paper, printed, painted, or ſtained, in this Kingdom;’ be it therefore enacted by the King’s moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Firſt Day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, to import into this Kingdom, by way of Merchandiſe, and to utter and ſell the ſame here, any Sort of Paper, printed, painted, or ſtained, in foreign Parts; any Thing in the before-recited Acts, or any other Act or Acts to the Contrary notwithſtanding.

After Auguſt, 1773, Paper printed or ſtained to be imported or ſold.

Duty of One Penny Halfpenny to be impoſed per Yard on all Paper imported.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to charge any Paper with the additional Duty by this Act granted, which ſhall be printed, painted, or ſtained, in the Eaſt Indies, and imported from thence by the United Company of Merchants of England trading thither, or Perſons licenſed by them; any Thing herein-before contained to the Contrary notwithſtanding.

Preamble. Act 2 & 3 Annæ.

‘WHEREAS by an Act, made in the Second and Third Years of the Reign of Her late Majeſty Queen Anne, (intituled, An Act for the better ſecuring and regulating the Duties upon Salt), Cod Fiſh, Ling, or Hake, caught and cured at Newfoundland, or Ireland, are permitted to be imported, brought in, or landed, under certain Reſtrictions and Regulations therein particularly mentioned: And whereas it may tend to the Increaſe of the Trade and Navigation of this Kingdom, if the like Permiſſion were granted of importing and bringing in Cod Fiſh, Ling, or Hake, caught and cured in Chaleur Bay, or any other Part of the Gulph of Saint Lawrence, or on the Coaſt of Labrador;’ may it therefore pleaſe Your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame,

After paſſing this Act, all Cod Fiſh, Ling, and Hake, caught in Chaleur Bay, &c. may be imported, ſubject to the Rules in Act 10 & 11 Gul. III. Oath being made by the Maſter of the Veſſel, that the Fiſh brought in, came from the Gulph of St. Lawrence, &c. Penalty on removing Fiſh from the Shore before tendered to the Officer.

That from and after the paſſing of this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful to import, bring in, in Britiſh-built Veſſels, navigated according to Law, and ſubject to the Rules preſcribed in an Act of the Tenth and Eleventh Years of the Reign of His late Majeſty King William the Third, (intituled, An Act to encourage the Trade to Newfoundland*)*, and to land in Great Britain, all Cod Fiſh, Ling, and Hake, caught and cured in Chaleur Bay, or any other Part of the Gulph of Saint Lawrence, or on the Coaſt of Labrador, ſo as Oath be firſt made before the Landing thereof, by the Owner or Proprietor of ſuch Fiſh, or the Maſter of the Veſſel bringing the ſame, before the Officer for the Duties on Salt, in the Port or Place where ſuch Fiſh ſhall be imported or brought in, (who is hereby required to adminiſter the ſame without Fee or Charge), that all the Fiſh ſo imported or brought in came from the Gulph of Saint Lawrence, or the Coaſt of Labrador, and were caught and cured there; and ſo as the ſaid Fiſh be, at the Landing thereof, and before the ſame be removed from the Shore, tendered to the Officer of the Port or Place, for the ſaid Duties, to have Part of the Tail of every ſuch Cod Fiſh, Ling, or Hake, cut off, that no Allowance for ſuch Fiſh may be obtained upon Exportation; and the ſaid Officer is hereby impowered and required to cut off Part of the Tail of all ſuch Fiſh on the Landing thereof: And in caſe any ſuch Fiſh ſhall be landed or removed from the Shore before the ſame ſhall be tendered to the Officer, to have Part of the Tail cut, as aforeſaid, all the Fiſh ſo imported and landed ſhall be forfeited, and Double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Importer, Proprietor, or Maſter of the Veſſel.

II. And whereas, in the curing of Cod Fiſh, Ling, and Hake, conſiderable Quantities of Salt are neceſſarily thrown over them, when ſhipped, to preſerve them from ſpoiling, and a great Part thereof falls off in unloading the Veſſel, and it hath been too common a Practice for the Owner or Maſter of the Veſſel, and People belonging thereto, to collect ſuch looſe and foul Salt together, and clandeſtinely convey it on Shore, and ſell it at an under Price, whereby His Majeſty's Revenue has been conſiderably injured; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, the Maſter of every Veſſel laden with Cod Fiſh, Ling, or Hake, either coming from Newfoundland, the North Seas, or Ireland, or the Gulph of Saint Lawrence, or the Coaſt of Labrador, into any Port or Place in Great Britain, ſhall, and is hereby required to throw, or cauſe to be thrown, overboard, and deſtroyed, all the Salt that ſhall ſo fall off, or be in the Veſſel, at the Time of the unloading or landing of all or any Part of her Cargo, in the Preſence of an Officer for the Duties on Salt; and if the Maſter of ſuch Veſſel ſhall neglect or refuſe ſo to do, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Salt Officer on Board, by himſelf, or with ſuch Aſſiſtance as may be neceſſary, to throw all and every Part thereof overboard, or otherwiſe deſtroy the ſame, and the Maſter, for ſuch Neglect or Refuſal, ſhall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds, and Coſts; and if any ſuch Salt ſhall be landed or Preamble. Act 6 Geo. I.

‘WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majeſty King George the Firſt, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds and Abuſes in the publick Revenues of Exciſe, Cuſtoms, Stamp-duties, Poſt Office, and Houſe Money, and by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts of Parliament, a Rule is preſcribed for admeaſuring of Ships and Veſſels importing Brandy and other Spirits, and hovering upon the Coaſts of this Kingdom with various Goods prohibited to be imported here; but no Rule being preſcribed by Law for the admeaſuring of Ships or Veſſels exporting Spirits from Great Britain into foreign Parts, and in various other Caſes where the Tonage and Burthen of Ships or Veſſels, trading to and from this Kingdom is neceſſary to be known and aſcertained; and it being expedient that One certain Rule for this Purpoſe ſhould be ſettled and eſtabliſhed in all Caſes, to prevent any Diſputes that may ariſe concerning the Tonage and Burthen of ſuch Ships or Veſſels,’ be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, Rule by which Ships are to be meaſured for aſcertaining the Tonage.

That from and after the Firſt Day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three, the Tonage and Burthen of any Ship or Veſſel importing or exporting Brandy, or other Spirituous Liquors, or any other Goods whatſoever, into or from this Kingdom, or hovering upon the Coaſts thereof, and where the Owner or Proprietor, or other Perſon, ſhall be intitled to any Bounty or Allowance, according to the Tonage of any Ship or Veſſel, and in all other Caſes whatſoever where the Tonage and Burthen of any Ship or Veſſel ſhall be neceſſary to be aſcertained and known by any Act or Acts of Parliament made, or hereafter to be made, concerning the Revenues of Cuſtoms, Exciſe, or Salt Duty, the Rule for admeaſuring ſuch Ships or Veſſels ſhall be as follows; that is to ſay, The Length ſhall be taken on a ſtreight Line along the Rabbet of the Keel of the Ship, from the Back of the Main Stern Poſt to a perpendicular Line from the Forepart of the Main Stern under the Bowſprit, from which ſubſtracting Three-fifths of the Breadth, the Remainder ſhall be eſteemed the juſt Length of the Keel to find the Tonage; and the Breadth ſhall be taken from the Outſide of the outſide Plank, in the broadeſt Place of the Ship, be it either above or below the Main Whales, excluſive of all Manner of doubling Planks that may be wrought upon the Sides of the Ship, then multiplying the Length of the Keel by the Breadth ſo taken, and that Product by Half the Breadth, and dividing the Whole by Ninety-four, the Quotient ſhall be deemed the true Contents of the Tonage; according to which Rule the Tonage of all ſuch Ships and Veſſels ſhall be meaſured and aſcertained, any Thing in the ſaid recited Act of the Sixth of King George the Firſt, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the Contrary notwithſtanding.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing herein contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to make any Alteration in the Method of admeaſuring Keels, Boats, and other Veſſels, uſed in carrying Coals, purſuant to an Act, made in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of King William the Third, intituled, An Act for the better Admeaſurement of Keels and Keel Boats in the Port of Newcaſtle, and the Members thereto belonging: Provided alſo, that nothing herein contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to make any Alteration in the Method of admeaſuring any Buſs or Veſſel uſed in carrying on the White Herring Fiſhery, purſuant to the ſeveral Acts made for the Encouragement of the Britiſh White Herring Fiſhery.

Act 12 Geo. III.

III. And whereas Doubts have ariſen upon the Conſtruction of an Act, made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for encouraging the Manufacture of Leather, by lowering the Duty payable upon the Importation of Oak Bark, when the Price of ſuch Bark ſhall exceed a certain Rate, for a limited Time, whether Oak Bark, ſeized and condemned within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, in purſuance of the ſaid recited Act, and the Penalties and Forfeitures thereby inflicted, may be ſued for, proſecuted, and recovered, in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland; and by reaſon of ſuch Doubts great Frauds and Abuſes may be committed: Now, for removing and putting an End to the ſame; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch Oak Bark which ſhall be ſeized and condemned within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, in purſuance of the ſaid recited Act, and all Offences againſt the ſame, and all Penalties and Forfeitures whatſoever thereby inflicted, ſhall and may be reſpectively ſued for, proſecuted, recovered, and applied, in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, by ſuch Perſons reſpectively, and in the ſame Manner, as fully and amply, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as they might in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, in like Caſes happening in that Part of Great Britain called England.

Penalties for Oak Bark ſeized and condemned in Scotland, may be recovered in the Court of Exchequer there, as in Courts of Record at Weſtminſter.

IV. And whereas the Duty of One Penny per Hundred Weight upon Oak Bark imported into this Kingdom, which was granted by the ſaid recited Act, is not appropriated by Parliament; be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the Monies ariſing by the ſaid Duty on Oak Bark, which was granted by the ſaid recited Act, ſhall be accounted for by the ſeveral Officers of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms, who ſhall collect and receive the ſame, to that Branch of the Cuſtoms which is called The Old Subſidy, and ſhall be applied and appropriated to the ſame Uſes and Purpoſes as other Monies ariſing by the ſaid Branch of Cuſtoms are applied and appropriated by virtue of any Act of Parliament now in Force.

How the Duty of 1d. per Hundred Weight upon Oak Bark imported into this Kingdom is to be applied.

and Act 12 Geo. III. recited.

Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, how to be levied and applied.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That no Fine, Iſſue, Penalty, or Forfeiture, for not repairing the Highways, or not appearing to any Indictment or Preſentment for not repairing the ſame, ſhall hereafter be returned into the Court of Exchequer, or other Court, but ſhall be levied by and paid into the Hands of ſuch Perſon or Perſons reſiding in or near the Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, where the Road ſhall lie, as the Court impoſing ſuch Fines, Iſſues, Penalties, or Forfeitures, ſhall order and direct, to be applied towards the Repair and Amendment of ſuch Highways; and the Perſon or Perſons ſo ordered to receive ſuch Fine ſhall, and is hereby required to receive, apply, and account for the ſame, according to the Direction of ſuch Court, or in Default thereof, ſhall forfeit Double the Sum received; and if any Fine, Iſſue, Penalty, or Forfeiture, to be impoſed on any ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, for not repairing the Highways, or not appearing as aforeſaid, ſhall hereafter be levied on any One or more of the Inhabitants of ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, that then ſuch Inhabitant or Inhabitants ſhall and may make his or their Complaint to the Juſtices of the Peace, at their Special Seſſions; and the ſaid Juſtices are hereby impowered and authoriſed, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to cauſe a Rate to be made, according to the Form and Manner herein-laſt before preſcribed, for the reimburſing ſuch Inhabitant or Inhabitants the Monies ſo levied on him or them as aforeſaid; which Rate ſo made, and confirmed by any Two Juſtices, ſhall be collected and levied by the Surveyor of the Highways of ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, ſo preſented or indicted, as aforeſaid; and the ſaid Surveyor ſhall, within One Month next after the making and confirming the Rate aforeſaid, collect, levy, and pay unto ſuch Inhabitant or Inhabitants the Money ſo levied on him or them as aforeſaid.

Lords of Manors, &c. with Conſent of Three-fourths of Perſons having Right of Common, may leaſe a Twelfth Part of Waſtes, and the Net Rents to be applied for improving the Reſidue of ſuch Waſtes

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Lord or Lords, Lady or Ladies, of any Manor, with the Conſent of Three-fourths of the Perſons having Right of Common upon the Waſtes and Commons within his, her, or their Manor, at a Meeting to be held after Fourteen Days Notice, ſuch Notice to be given in Manner herein-before directed by the Lord or Lords, Lady or Ladies, of the Manor, or their Agent reſpectively, at any Time or Times, to demiſe or leaſe, for any Term or Number of Years, not exceeding Four Years, any Part of ſuch Waſtes and Commons, not exceeding a Twelfth Part thereof, for the beſt and moſt improved yearly Rent that can by publick Auction be got for the ſame; and that the clear Net Rents reſerved to the Lord or Lords, Lady or Ladies, his, her, or their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, by any Leaſe or Leaſes to be granted as aforeſaid, ſhall be by him, her, or them, and the major Part of his, her, or their Tenants, applied in the draining, fencing, or otherwiſe improving of the Reſidue of ſuch Waſtes and Commons.

Aſſeſſments to be levied for the improving of Waſtes where there are ſtinted Commons.

XVI. Provided always, nevertheleſs, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in every Manor where there are ſtinted Commons, in lieu of demiſing or leaſing Part thereof, One or more Aſſeſſment or Aſſeſſments upon the Lord or Lords, Lady or Ladies, of ſuch Manor, and the Perſons being Owners or Occupiers of ſuch Commons, or their Agents or Managers, ſhall or may, at their Option, be made, levied, and collected, by ſuch Perſon and Perſons, and allowed in ſuch Manner as the Lord or Lords, Lady or Ladies, of ſuch Manor, and the major Part in Number and Value of the Owners or Occupiers of ſuch Commons, preſent at a Meeting to be held within the ſaid Manor, in purſuance of Fourteen Days Notice to be given by the Lord or Lords, Lady or Ladies, or his, her, or their Agent, in Manner aforeſaid, of the Time and Place of Meeting for that Purpoſe, ſhall direct and appoint in that Behalf; and the Money thereby raiſed ſhall be employed and accounted for, according to the Orders and Directions of the ſaid Lord or Lords, Lady or Ladies, and ſuch Majority of the Owners or Occupiers, as aforeſaid, in the Improvement of ſuch Commons, from Time to Time, as Need ſhall require; and the ſaid Aſſeſſments ſhall, by virtue of a Warrant under the Hand and Seal of One Juſtice of the Peace, be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of every Perſon ſo aſſeſſed, and not paying the ſame within Ten Days after being demanded, rendering the Overplus of the Value of the Goods ſo diſtrained (if any) to the Owner and Owners thereof, the neceſſary Charges of making ſuch Diſtreſs and Sale being firſt deducted.

Stinted Commons to be opened at a certain Time as Owners, &c. at a Meeting ſhall direct.

XVII. And whereas there are, in many Parts of this Kingdom, certain ſtinted Commons of Paſture which are never enjoyed in Severalty, but which are at certain Times ſhut up for the better Growth of the Paſture, and opened on certain fixed Days, from which, in particular Circumſtances and Seaſons, great Inconveniencies do and may ariſe; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the major Part in Number and Value of the Owners and Occupiers of ſuch common Paſtures, preſent at a Meeting to be held after Six Days Notice at leaſt given, in Manner herein-before directed, with the Conſent of the Lord or Lords, Lady or Ladies, of the Manor, or his, her, or their Steward or Agent, to poſtpone the opening of the ſaid common Paſtures for a Time not exceeding Twenty-one Days.

XVIII. And whereas there are in many Places common Paſtures, with ſtinted or limited Rights of Common therein, which are open the whole Year, and it would be attended with great Advantages to the Commoners to ſhut up and unſtock the ſame at particular Seaſons; be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for Two-thirds in Number and Value of ſuch Commoners, at a Meeting to be holden after Fourteen Days Notice given in Manner herein-before directed, with the Conſent of the Lord or Lords, Lady or Ladies, of the Manor or Manors in which ſuch Commons are ſituated, his, her, or their Steward or Stewards, Agent or Agents, to direct, order, and fix, the Time when ſuch common Paſtures ſhall be broke or depaſtured, and when the ſame ſhall be ſhut up and unſtocked; ſuch Orders to continue in Force for One whole Year, and no longer.

Two-thirds of Commoners, with Conſent of the Lord of the Manor, &c. may direct the opening and ſhutting of Common Paſtures, &c.

XIX. Provided nevertheleſs, That a Portion of ſuch Common Paſtures ſhall be ſeparated and ſet apart for the Uſe of ſuch Commoners excluſively as ſhall not conſent to ſuch Regulation, and the Portion ſo ſet apart ſhall be adjudged by a Majority of ſuch Commoners, not conſenting as aforeſaid, an Equivalent for their Rights of Common.

Proviſo reſpecting Perſons not conſenting to the above Regulations.

XX. And whereas many ſtinted Common Paſtures in this Kingdom are fed and depaſtured by Horſes, Beaſts, or Neat Cattle, and in many Inſtances it would tend to the Improvement of ſuch common Paſtures, and to the better Manuring and Cultivation of the Arable Lands in common Fields, or otherwiſe, to which ſuch common Paſtures may belong, if the ſame were fed with Sheep; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the major Part in Number and Value of the Perſons having Right of Common in ſuch common Paſtures, at any Meeting to be held in Purſuance of Notice, in Writing, under the Hands of a major Part of ſuch Owners and Occupiers of ſuch common Paſtures, or Perſons having Right of Common therein, to be affixed on the principal Door of the Pariſh Church of the Pariſh where ſuch common Paſtures ſhall lie, or of the neareſt Pariſh Church where ſuch Lands ſhall lie in an extraparochial Place, Ten Days at leaſt previous to ſuch Meeting, ſpecifying the Time and Place, and Intent of ſuch Meeting, by Writing under their Hands, to alter and change the Manner and Cuſtom of feeding and depaſturing ſuch common Paſtures, ſo far as inſtead of Horſes, Cows, and other Cattle, to allow the ſame to be fed and depaſtured with Sheep, at the Option of each Perſon reſpectively having Right of Common; and to limit and ſtint the Number of Sheep each ſuch Perſon, having Right of Common in ſuch common Paſtures, ſhall reſpectively feed and depaſture thereon, in due Proportion to their reſpective Stints or Rights.

Perſons having Right of Common may depaſture Sheep inſtead of other Cattle.

XXI. And whereas the Improvement of the Breed of Sheep is a Matter of great national Importance, and the turning of Rams upon Waſtes and Open Common Fields at certain Times of the Year has been found to be very prejudicial; be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Ram ſhall be turned upon, or be ſuffered to remain upon, any Waſtes or common Fields, between the Twenty-Fifth Day of Auguſt and the Twenty-fifth Day of November in every Year.

Rams not to remain upon Waſtes from Aug. 25, to Nov. 25.

XXII. And whereas ſeveral of the Owners and Proprietors of Waſtes, Commons, and Common Field Lands, may, at the Time of any Meeting to be held in purſuance of this Act, be incapable, through various Impediments, of entering into any of the Agreements hereby authoriſed to be made, for the better ordering, fencing, cultivating, and improving, of Common Arable Fields, Waſtes, and Commons of Paſture, in this Kingdom, without the Aid and Authority of Parliament; be it therefore further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Huſbands, Guardians, Truſtees, Committees, or known Agent or Receiver of any Owner and Proprietor of Waſtes, Commons, and Common Field Lands, and of any Perſon having a Right or Intereſt therein, being under Coverture, Minors, Lunaticks, or beyond the Seas, and for every or any of them for the Time being; and alſo to and for all and every or any of the ſaid Owners and Occupiers, being Tenants in Tail, Tenants by the Courteſy of England, or Tenants for Life only, and to and for every or any of them reſpectively for the Time being, to enter into, and ſign any Agreement to be made in purſuance of this Act.

Perſons formerly under Diſability, under this Act may ſign Agreements.

XXIII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Rector or Tithe Owner, in Right of his Rectory, Vicarage, or Curacy, or the Leſſee of either of them reſpectively, who ſhall agree for or let his Tithes of the ſaid Common Field Lands, during the ſaid Term of Six Years, or any Part thereof, ſhall receive any Fine, Foregift, Gratuity, or Compenſation whatever, other than by equal half-yearly or yearly Payments.

Rectors or Tithe Owners, not to receive Gratuity for letting Tithes other than by Half-yearly or yearly Payments.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That every Agreement ſo entered into in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be good, valid, and effectual in the Law, for the Purpoſes thereby intended, notwithſtanding the want of legal Title in the ſaid Owner or Owners, or in the ſaid Huſbands, Guardians, Truſtees, Committees, Agents, or Receivers, or in the Perſons acting as ſuch, or in the ſaid Tenants in Tail, Tenants by the Courteſy of England, or Tenants for Life only, any Settlement or Settlements, Will or Wills, to the Contrary in any-wiſe notwithſtanding.

All Agreements made to be valid in Law.

XXV. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Conſent of any Occupier of Lands in ſuch Common Arable Fields, or of a ſeparate Sheep Walk therein, to any ſuch Firſt Agreement, for the ordering, fencing, cultivating, and improving of ſuch Common Fields, to be made by the Authority of or in purſuance of this Act, ſhall be good and valid, unleſs ſuch Occupier Conſent of Occupiers not to be valid, without a written Authority under the Hand of the Proprietor.

ſhall, at the Time of entering into ſuch Agreement, produce a written Authority for that Purpoſe, under the Hand of the Owner or Proprietor, Guardian or Truſtee; or in caſe of ſuch Owner not being a Minor, and being in Parts beyond the Seas, of the known Agent of ſuch Owner.

Actions may be brought at Weſtminſter.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Owner or Occupier of any Common Field Lands, or of any Part thereof, for the better Cultivation whereof any Rules and Regulations ſhall have been agreed upon, in purſuance of the Powers and Authorities given by this Act, ſhall not conform to ſuch Rules and Regulations, or ſhall wilfully deviate therefrom in any Reſpect whatſoever; that then, and in ſuch Caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Owner or Owners, or Occupier or Occupiers, of any Part of ſuch Common Field Lands, who may have been damnified by a Breach of the Regulations aforeſaid, to bring One or more Action or Actions of Treſpaſs, or upon the Caſe, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, againſt the Perſon or Perſons ſo offending; and if in any ſuch Action, ſo to be brought as aforeſaid, a Verdict ſhall be given for the Plaintiff, or he ſhall recover Judgement by Default; that then, and in ſuch Caſe, the Party or Parties ſo offending ſhall anſwer to the Party grieved all ſuch Damages as ſhall be recovered in ſuch Action, together with Double Coſts of Suit.

No Perſon is hereby prevented from incloſing his Lands for his own Uſe.

XXVII. Provided, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall prevent, or extend to prevent, any Perſon or Perſons from incloſing all or any Part or Parts of his, her, or their Land, to and for his, her or their own Uſe or Benefit, ſuch Perſon or Perſons having full Power or Right ſo to do.

Six Inches as aforeſaid, and for and in reſpect of Horſes, or Beaſts of Draught, drawing the ſame, (except as before excepted) ſhall be paid in the ſame Manner, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if no Exemption, or leſs Toll, had been enacted or allowed by any of the ſaid Acts reſpectively, and as fully as all other Waggons, Wains, Carts, and Carriages, and Horſes drawing the ſame, ought reſpectively to pay, which are not intitled to any Exemption from Toll, in the Whole or Part; or to pay a leſs Toll than other Waggons, Wains, Carts, and Carriages; any Law or Statute to the Contrary notwithſtanding.

No Benefit to be taken of Exemptions, unleſs the Fellies lie flat.

XXV. Provided, That no Perſon or Perſons be allowed to take the Benefit of any ſuch Exemptions, or to have the Privilege herein-before given of compounding in reſpect of any Carriage having the Fellies of the Wheels thereof of the Breadth or Gauge of Six Inches, or upwards, unleſs the Fellies, and the Tire upon ſuch Fellies, ſhall lie flat.

Waggons, &c. moving on Rollers, of the Breadth of 16 Inches on each Side with flat Surfaces, to paſs Toll-free for One Year, and then-after paying One Half of the Toll.

XXVI. Provided alſo, That all Waggons, Carts, or Carriages, moving upon Rollers, of the Breadth of Sixteen Inches on each Side thereof, with flat Surfaces, ſhall be permitted to paſs or be drawn upon any Turnpike Road Toll-free, for the Term of One Year, to be computed from Michaelmas, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-three; and from and after the Expiration of the ſaid Term, all ſuch Waggons, Carts, or Carriages, as aforeſaid, ſhall paſs upon any Turnpke Road, through any Toll-gate or Bar, upon paying only ſo much of the Tolls and Duties as ſhall not exceed One Half of the full Toll or Duty payable by this or any Turnpike Act, for all Waggons, Wains, or Carts, having the Fellies of the Wheels of the Breadth or Gauge of Six Inches from Side to Side, or for the Horſes or Beaſts of Draught drawing the ſame, and not rolling a Surface of Sixteen Inches on each Side thereof; and that no more than Half Toll ſhall be paid in reſpect of Waggons having the Fellies of the Wheels thereof of the Breadth of Nine Inches, and rolling a Surface of Sixteen Inches on each Side thereof, from and after the Commencement of this Act; any Thing herein contained to the Contrary notwithſtanding.

Carriages to which the Act does not extend.

XXVII. Provided always, That nothing herein-before contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend to any Chaiſe-marine, Coach, Landau, Berlin, Chariot, Chaiſe, Chair, Calaſh, or Hearſe, or to the Carriage of ſuch Ammunition or Artillery as ſhall be for His Majeſty's Service, or to any Cart or Carriage drawn by One Horſe, or Two Oxen, and no more; or to any Carriage; having the Sole or Bottom of the Fellies of the Wheels thereof of the Breadth of Nine Inches, which ſhall be laden with One Block of Stone, One Piece of Marble, One Cable Rope, One Piece of Metal, or One Piece of Timber.

Truſtees may reduce the Tolls, at any publick Meeting,

XXIX. And whereas, in and by ſeveral Acts of Parliament, made and paſſed for amending and repairing particular Turnpike Roads, there is no Power, or no effectual Power, given to the Truſtees to leſſen the Tolls, although ſuch Turnpike Roads may be ſufficiently, or in a great Degree, amended and repaired, and all, or the greateſt Part of, the Money borrowed upon the Credit of any ſuch Acts, may have been paid and diſcharged; be it therefore further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Truſtees appointed in and by virtue of any Act of Parliament now in Force for repairing and amending ſuch particular Roads as aforeſaid, or any Seven or more of ſuch Truſtees reſpectively, and they are hereby impowered, in any of the Caſes aforeſaid, at a Meeting to be held for that Purpoſe, of which One Calendar Month's Notice ſhall be given in Writing, to be affixed on all Turnpike Gates which ſhall be then erected upon ſuch reſpective Roads, and in ſome publick News-paper circulated in that Part of the Country, from Time to Time, to leſſen or reduce all or any of the Tolls granted by any of the ſaid reſpective Acts, for and during ſuch Time as the ſaid Truſtees, or any Seven or more of them, ſhall think proper; and afterwards, at any Meeting, to be held as aforeſaid, from Time to Time, if they ſhall ſee Occaſion, to advance all or any of the Tolls ſo leſſened to any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding the ſeveral Rates granted by ſuch Acts of Parliament reſpectively.

and afterwards to advance them again;

Provided ſuch Alterations of the Tolls be made with the Conſent of the Creditors.

XXX. Powers for Juſtices to farm out the Tolls,

XXXI. And whereas in and by ſeveral Acts of Parliament, made for repairing particular Turnpike Roads, there are no Powers given to the Truſtees to let or Farm out the Tolls ariſing upon ſuch Roads, and in many Caſes where the particular Acts have given ſuch Power, they are not executed and enforced in the moſt beneficial Manner for ſuch Roads; for Remedy whereof, be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Truſtees of any particular Turnpike Act, or any Seven or more of them, at a publick Meeting, to let to Farm the Tolls of the ſeveral Gates erected upon their reſpective Turnpike Roads, in the Manner herein-after mentioned, although no expreſs Power ſhall have been given by ſuch Turnpike Act for that Purpoſe; and that whenever any Tolls ſhall hereafter be let to farm, by virtue of the Powers given by this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, the following Directions ſhall be obſerved; (that is to ſay) The Truſtees ſhall cauſe Notice to be given of the Time and Place for under particular Directions and Reſtrictions, for letting the ſame at leaſt One Month before the Day to be appointed for that Purpoſe, by fixing the ſame upon every Toll-gate belonging to ſuch Turnpike Road, and alſo upon the Market-croſs of the Market Town neareſt to the Place where the ſaid Tolls are to be let, and alſo in ſome publick News-paper circulated in that Part of the Country, and ſpecifying in every ſuch Notice the Sum which the ſaid Tolls produced in the preceding Year, clear of the Salary for collecting the ſame, in caſe any hired Collector was appointed, and that they will let ſuch Tolls by Auction to the beſt Bidder, on his producing ſufficient Sureties for Payment of the Money, monthly or quarterly, as ſhall be required by the Truſtees; and that they will be put up at the Sum which they were let for or produced in the preceding Year, clear of the Salary of the Collector; and to prevent Fraud, or any undue Preference in the letting thereof, the Truſtees are hereby required to provide a Glaſs with ſo much Sand in it as will run from One End of it to the other in One Minute; which Glaſs, at the Time of letting the ſaid Tolls, ſhall be ſet upon a Table, and immediately after every Bidding the Glaſs ſhall be turned, and as ſoon as the Sand is run out, it ſhall be turned again, and ſo for Three Times, unleſs ſome other Bidding intervenes: And if no other Perſon ſhall bid, until the Sand ſhall have run through the Glaſs for Three Times, the laſt Bidder ſhall be the Farmer or Renter of the ſaid Tolls, and ſhall forthwith enter into a proper Agreement for the taking thereof, and paying the Money at the Times ſpecified in ſuch Notice, or as ſhall be agreed upon between him and the Truſtees; and in caſe no Bidder ſhall offer, the ſaid Truſtees may appoint a Collector of ſuch Tolls, or fix ſome future Day for the letting thereof, as they ſhall judge moſt proper, upon giving ſuch Notice thereof as aforeſaid, and ſhall and may, in that Caſe, put them up at ſuch Sum as they ſhall think fit: And if the Perſon or Perſons who ſhall be the Farmer or Renter of ſuch Tolls ſhall take a greater or leſs Toll from any Perſon or Perſons than what are authoriſed or directed by this or the particular Turnpike Act, he or they ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of Five Pounds, and ſhall alſo forfeit the ſaid Contract for renting the Tolls, if the ſaid Truſtees ſhall think fit to vacate the ſame; and every other Gatekeeper authoriſed to collect the Tolls, who ſhall take a greater or leſs Toll than as aforeſaid, ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of Forty Shillings.

to the beſt Bidder.

The laſt Bidder to be the Farmer of the Tolls.

If the Farmer of Tolls takes a greater or leſs Toll than allowed, he forfeits 5l. and alſo his Contract; if he is not the Farmer, he forfeits 40s.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That the Surveyors of all Turnpike Roads ſhall cauſe the Statute-duty required by the reſpective Turnpike Acts, and the Compoſitions ariſing from the ſame, to be performed, laid out, and expended, upon the Turnpike Road lying within the Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, from which ſuch Duty ſhall be required, and not elſewhere, and ſhall forfeit the Sum of Forty Shillings for every Miſapplication thereof; and that where there are Two or more Turnpike Roads under ſeveral Acts of Parliament within the ſame Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, and the Statute-duty directed by all ſuch Acts to be taken or applied for the Repair of ſuch Turnpike Roads within ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, ſhall exceed Three Days Duty in the Whole; then, and in ſuch Caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful for Two or more Juſtices of the Peace of the Limit where ſuch Turnpike Roads ſhall be, and they are hereby required, at ſome Special Seſſions, to adjuſt and proportion the Statute-duty betwixt ſuch Turnpike Roads and the other Highways in ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, in ſuch Manner as they ſhall think fit, having Regard to the Extent and Condition of the ſaid ſeveral Roads and Highways, and alſo to the Tolls and Revenues ariſing from ſuch Turnpike Roads reſpectively, the ſaid Juſtices previouſly ſummoning the Clerks and Surveyors of ſuch Turnpike Roads, and likewiſe the Surveyors of the Highways, for ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, who are hereby reſpectively required to attend the Juſtices upon ſuch Summons.

All Statute-duty to be performed in the Pariſh, &c. where it ariſes.

If more Turnpike Roads than are in the ſame Pariſh, and the Statute-duty required to them exceeds Three Days, the Juſtices may adjuſt the Proportions.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That when the Inhabitants of any Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, ſhall be indicted or preſented for not repairing any Highway, being Turnpike Road, and the Court before whom ſuch Indictment or Preſentment ſhall be preferred ſhall impoſe a Fine for the Repair of ſuch Road, the ſame ſhall be proportioned, together with the Coſts and Charges attending the ſame, between the Inhabitants of ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, and the Truſtees of ſuch Turnpike Road, in ſuch Manner as to the ſaid Court, upon Conſideration of the Circumſtances of the Caſe, ſhall ſeem juſt; and it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch Court to order the Treaſurer of ſuch Turnpike Road to pay the Sum ſo proportioned for ſuch Turnpike Road out of the Money then in his Hands, or next to be received by him, in caſe it ſhall appear to ſuch Court, from the Circumſtances of ſuch Turnpike Debts and Revenues, that the ſame may be paid without endangering the Security of the Creditors who have advanced their Money upon the Credit of the Tolls to be raiſed thereupon; which Order ſhall be binding upon ſuch Treaſurer, and he is hereby authoriſed and required to obey the ſame.

Qualification of Truſtees, where the particular Act has not fixed it.

XLIV. And whereas great Miſchiefs have ariſen from mean Perſons acting as Truſtees in the Execution of ſuch Acts of Parliament, made for repairing publick Roads in that Part of Great Britain called England, as do not direct and require that the Truſtees thereby appointed ſhall be qualified to act as ſuch by the Poſſeſſion of Real or Perſonal Eſtates to a certain Value; be it therefore enacted, That no Perſon ſhall be qualified, or capable of acting as a Truſtee in the Execution of any ſuch Act as aforeſaid, unleſs he ſhall be in his own Right, or in the Right of his Wife, in the actual Poſſeſſion or Receipt of the Rents and Profits of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments of the clear yearly Value of Forty Pounds; or poſſeſſed of, or intitled to, a perſonal Eſtate to the Value of Eight hundred Pounds; or ſhall be Heir-apparent of a Perſon poſſeſſed of an Eſtate in Land of the clear yearly Value of Eighty Pounds; and unleſs he hath taken, or ſhall, (not being ſuch Heir-apparent as aforeſaid), before he acts as ſuch Truſtee, take and ſubſcribe the Oath following before any Two or more of the Truſtees appointed, or to be appointed, by or in purſuance of ſuch Act, who are hereby authoriſed and impowered to adminiſter the ſame in the Words, or to the Effect following; that is to ſay,

On the Death of a Gate-keeper, Two Truſtees may nominate another until the next Meeting of the Truſtees.

If the Gate-keeper, who is diſcharged, refuſes to deliver up Poſſeſſion of the Houſe, &c. the Juſtices may, by Warrant, order him to be removed with his Goods.

LIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Two or more Truſtees of any Turnpike Road, upon the Death of any Toll-gatherer or Gate-keeper, appointed, or to be appointed, to collect the Tolls upon ſuch Turnpike Road, to nominate and appoint ſome other fit Perſon in his Place until the next Meeting of the Truſtees of ſuch Road, which Perſon, ſo to be nominated and appointed, ſhall have the like Power and Authority, and be accountable in the ſame Manner, in all Reſpects, as the Perſon ſo dying had, or would have been, if living: And that if any Toll-gatherer or Gate-keeper, who ſhall be diſcharged from his Office by the Truſtees authoriſed for that Purpoſe, ſhall refuſe to deliver up the Poſſeſſion of the Houſe, Buildings, and Appurtenances, which he enjoyed in Right of his Appointment to that Office, within Two Days after Notice of his Diſcharge ſhall be given to him, or left at his Houſe; or if the Wife or Family of any ſuch Toll-gatherer or Gate-keeper, who ſhall die, as aforeſaid, ſhall refuſe to deliver up the Poſſeſſion of ſuch Houſe, Buildings, and Appurtenances, within Four Days after ſuch new Appointment ſhall be made, as aforeſaid; then, and in either of the ſaid Caſes, it ſhall and may be lawful for any Juſtice of the Peace for the Limit where ſuch Turnpike-houſe ſhall be, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to order the Conſtable, or other Peace Officer, with ſuch Aſſiſtance as ſhall be neceſſary, to enter ſuch Houſe and Premiſes in the Day-time, and to remove the Perſons who ſhall be found therein, together with their Goods, out of ſuch Houſe, and to put the new-appointed Officer into the Poſſeſſion thereof.

Gate-keepers and Surveyors to account upon Oath when required by the Truſtees, or forfeit 5l.

LV. And be it further enacted, That the Gate-keeper or Toll-gatherer of every ſuch Toll Gate or Bar, and every Surveyor of any Turnpike Road, ſhall, when required, by Notice in Writing from the ſaid Truſtees, or any Five or more of them, render upon Oath, to be adminiſtered by and taken before any One Juſtice of the Peace, or Truſtee of ſuch Turnpike Road, a true and exact Account, in Writing, to the ſaid Truſtees, or to any Perſon to be named in ſuch Notice appointed by them, or any Five or more of them, of all Monies received by him, her, or them, at ſuch Toll Gate or Bar, or otherwiſe, on account of ſuch Turnpike Road, not before accounted for, under the Penalty of Five Pounds for every ſuch Offence or Neglect; to be recovered in a ſummary Manner before any One Juſtice of the Peace, and applied to the Uſe of the reſpective Road on which ſuch Toll-gate ſhall be placed.

No Gate-keeper to be removed as a Pauper, unleſs actually chargeable to the Pariſh, &c.

nor ſhall gain a Settlement by renting the Tolls,

LVI. And be it further enacted, That no Gate-keeper of any Turnpike Road, or Perſon renting the Tolls thereof, and reſiding in any Toll-houſe belonging to the ſaid Truſt, ſhall be removeable from ſuch Toll-houſe by the Order of any Juſtices of the Peace, in purſuance of any Laws now in being for the Relief or Regulation of the Poor, unleſs he ſhall become actually chargeable to the Pariſh or Place in which ſuch Toll-houſe is ſituate; and that no ſuch Gate-keeper, or Perſon renting ſuch Tolls, and reſiding in ſuch Toll-houſe, as aforeſaid, ſhall thereby gain a Settlement in any Pariſh or Place whatſoever; and that no Tolls to be taken at any Gate erected, or to be erected, by the Truſtees of any Turnpike Road, nor any Toll-houſe erected, or to be erected, for the Purpoſe of collecting the ſame, nor any Perſon, in reſpect of ſuch Tolls, or Toll-houſe, ſhall be rated or aſſeſſed towards the Payment of any Poors Rate, or any other publick or parochial Levy whatſoever.

Gate-keepers permitting a greater Number of Horſes or Carriage conſtructed otherwiſe than allowed by the Act, or without proper Inſcriptions painted thereon, and not proſecuting for the ſame, forfeit 40 s.

LVIII. And whereas there are or may be Turnpike Roads in ſuch a State and Condition with regard to their Repairs, and the Revenues ariſing upon them, that the Statute-duty required to be performed upon the ſame, or ſome Part thereof, may be diſpenſed with, and employed more conveniently for the Benefit of the other publick Highways within the Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, in which ſuch Turnpike Road lies; be it therefore enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Juſtices of the Peace, at any Special Seſſions, upon Application to them made by the Surveyor of any Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, in the Situation herein-before deſcribed, to ſummon the Clerk and Surveyor of ſuch Turnpike Road to appear before them, at ſome other Special Seſſions, and then and there to produce before them a State of the Revenues and Debts belonging to ſuch Turnpike Road, and for ſuch Juſtices then and there to enquire into the State and Condition of the Repairs thereof, and alſo of ſuch other Highways; and if it ſhall appear to them, upon full and clear Evidence, that the Whole, or any Part of ſuch Statute-duty, may be conveniently diſpenſed with from ſuch Turnpike Road, without endangering the Securities for the Money advanced upon the Credit of the Tolls thereof, and that ſuch Statute-duty is wanted for the Repairs of the other Highways within ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place; then, and in that Caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Juſtices to order the Whole, or Part, of ſuch Statute-duty to be performed upon the Highways, not being Turnpike, within ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, under the Direction of the Surveyor thereof, during ſuch Time as to them ſhall ſeem juſt and reaſonable, and the ſame ſhall be performed accordingly; any thing in this or any other Act of Parliament contained to the Contrary thereof in any-wiſe notwithſtanding.

Juſtices at Special Seſſions may transfer Part of the Statute-duty, applicable to Turnpike Roads, to the Pariſh Roads, if the Circumſtances of the ſeveral Roads require and admit of it.

LIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Juſtices of the Peace, within the Principality of Wales, at their reſpective General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, to be held in the Week after Michaelmas, to licence an Increaſe of the Number of Horſes to be employed in drawing Carriages on any Turnpike Road within their reſpective Juriſdictions, over and above the Number herein-before limited, if upon Enquiry into the State and Condition of ſuch Roads they ſhall find any additional Number of Horſes neceſſary, and, from Time to Time, at any Michaelmas Quarter Seſſions, to revoke, alter, or vary the ſame, as they ſhall think fit; and that neither the Owner or Driver of the Horſes ſo licenſed ſhall incur any Forfeiture for uſing ſuch increaſed Number of Horſes.

Juſtices in Wales, at their Michaelmas Quarter Seſſions, may allow an additional Number of Horſes when they think fit.

LX. And be it further enacted, That no Toll ſhall be collected or received at any Toll-gate for or in reſpect of Carriages ſolely employed in carrying Materials for the Repair of any Turnpike Road or publick Highway, or for going to ſuch Employment, or returning after having been ſo employed.

No Toll to be paid for Carriages employed in carrying Materials for Turnpike Roads or Highways.

LXI. And whereas it has been found by Experience, that ſmall Stones being permitted to lie upon the Land are a Benefit thereto, be it therefore enacted, That no Surveyor ſhall gather, or cauſe to be gathered, any Stones for the Uſe of the Highways, upon or from the common Fields or incloſed Lands or Grounds of any Perſon or Perſons whomſoever, without the Conſent of the Occupier of ſuch Lands or Grounds, or a Licence from a Juſtice of Peace of the Limit where ſuch Lands or Grounds lie for that Purpoſe, after having ſummoned ſuch Occupier to come before him, and heard his Reaſons, if he ſhall appear and give any, for refuſing his Conſent; any Thing contained in this Act, or in any Act of Parliament, for making and repairing Turnpike Roads, to the Contrary thereof in any-wiſe notwithſtanding.

No Surveyor to gather Stones from the common Fields or incloſed Lands of any Perſon without his Conſent, or a Licence from a Juſtice of Peace.

LXII. And whereas many Perſons are liable by Tenure, Incloſure, or otherwiſe, to the Repair of certain Highways, which having become Turnpike Roads, are more uſed, and occaſion an Increaſe of the Expence in repairing and maintaining thereof, which ought in ſome Degree to be laid upon ſuch Turnpike Road: For Remedy whereof, be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Truſtees of ſuch Turnpike Road to agree with the Perſon or Perſons liable to repair ſuch Highway, for the Repair thereof, in ſuch Manner as they ſhall think fit, and to contribute ſo much to the Repair thereof, out of the Tolls ariſing upon ſuch Turnpike Road, or out of the Statute-duty belonging to the ſame, as they ſhall think juſt and reaſonable.

and if the Parties cannot agree, it ſhall be viewed and ſettled by Two Juſtices of the Peace.

A groſs or annual Sum may be paid, if the Parties agree thereto.

If Action be brought againſt a Truſtee, Evidence of his being appointed a Truſtee, and acting as ſuch, ſufficient.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That in all Caſes where any Action ſhall be brought by or againſt any Truſtee or Truſtees of any Turnpike Road, Evidence of ſuch Truſtee or Truſtees having acted as ſuch, together with the Act of Parliament by which he or they was or were appointed, or the Order, or a Copy of the Order, for his or their Appointment or Election, in Caſe he or they was or were appointed or elected by the Truſtees, ſhall be ſufficient Proof of his or their being a Truſtee or Truſtees.

Treaſurers and Surveyors who have not already given Security, ſhall give Bond with Surety to the Truſtees, for the duly paying and applying the Money in their Hands.

LXX. And whereas the Powers given by ſeveral Turnpike Acts are ineffectual for the Purpoſes of digging, providing, and carrying Materials, for the Uſe of the Turnpike Roads therein deſcribed, and alſo for the Purpoſes of enlarging, diverting, and turning ſuch Turnpike Roads, and ſtopping up, ſelling, and diſpoſing of the old Roads ſo to be diverted and turned; and alſo for the making, opening, and cleanſing of Ditches and Drains, and the cutting and pruning of Hedges and Trees; and alſo for the calling forth and compelling the Performance of the Statute-duty which ſhall belong to ſuch Turnpike Roads: And whereas more ample Powers, under proper Guards and Reſtrictions, have been given, or may be given, for the ſeveral Purpoſes aforeſaid, by certain Clauſes, Proviſions, and Regulations, contained, or to be contained, in the Act or Acts of Parliament made, or to be made, for the Amendment and Preſervation of the Highways in general, (which Highways comprehend and include Turnpike Roads); and it may be more beneficial to the Turnpike Roads, and to the Publick, if the Surveyors of Turnpike Roads were authoriſed, within their reſpective Limits, to apply Part of the Tolls and Statute-duty in carrying the ſaid Powers into Execution, for the Uſe and Improvement of ſuch Turnpike Roads; be it therefore enacted, That the Surveyors of every Turnpike Road, within that Part of Great Britain called England, ſhall and may, with the Approbation of the Truſtees of every ſuch Turnpike Road, apply any Part of the Tolls and Statute-duty ariſing to, from, or in reſpect of every ſuch Turnpike Road, in the Execution of all and every the ſaid Powers, Clauſes, Proviſions, and Regulations, which are, or ſhall be contained in the ſaid Act or Acts of Parliament, for the Amendment and Preſervation of the Highways, and ſhall and may execute and enforce the ſame upon and to the Benefit and Improvement of ſuch Turnpike Roads reſpectively, for the ſeveral Purpoſes aforeſaid, as fully and amply, but upon ſuch Terms, under ſuch Reſtrictions, and in ſuch Manner and Form, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as the Surveyor of any Pariſh, Townſhip, or Place, can or may do, or apply the ſame, by virtue of, or under ſuch Act or Acts of Parliament.

When the Powers for providing Materials, enlarging and turning Turnpike Roads, making Drains, pruning Hedges and Trees, and calling forth the Statute-duty, are ineffectual, and where more ample Powers for theſe Purpoſes are given by the Highway Act, the Surveyor of Turnpike Roads, with the Approbation of the Truſtees, may execute and enforce theſe Powers upon and for the Benefit of the Turnpike Roads, upon the Terms, and under the Reſtrictions, in the Highway Act:

LXXI. Provided nevertheleſs, and be it further enacted, That when any Materials ſhall be dug or got by the Surveyor of any Turnpike Road, in the ſeveral or incloſed Lands or Grounds of any Perſon or Perſons, for the Uſe of any Turnpike Road, by or under the Authority of this Act, or of the ſaid Act or Acts, for the Amendment and Preſervation of the Highways, Satisfaction ſhall be made by the Truſtees of ſuch Turnpike Road to the Owner or Occupier of ſuch Lands or Grounds, for the Materials ſo to be dug or got, and alſo for the Damages in carrying away the ſame, in ſuch Manner as Satisfaction is or ſhall be required to be made for the Damages occaſioned by the digging, getting, and carrying away the Materials in ſeveral or incloſed Lands or Grounds, by virtue of the ſaid Act or Acts for the Amendment and Preſervation of the Highways.
